Dream Girl To Be Named

Two North county beauties will vie with 11 other San Mateo county girls for the title of 1963 Fair and Fiesta Dream Girl tomorrow evening.

Judging of the girls and selection of a winner will take place in the Twin Industrial building on the San Mateo county fairgrounds.

The 1963 Dream Girl will reign over this year's county fiesta August 2 through 10 and will appear in the Fiesta Bowl show.

Representing Daly City in the contest will be statuette Claudia Ann Smith, 18, of 71 Garden Grove drive.

Claudia graduated from Westmoor High school this year. She is brunette, 5-11 and her vital statistics are 36-25-37. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith.

Claudia hopes to become a model. Representing Pacifica will be an honor student from Terra Nova High school, 17-year-old Sandra Finley.

Sandra is the daughter of Mrs. Keith Priddy of 143 Flores drive. A brunette, she stands 5-6 and her vital statistics are 35-26-36. Claudia, Sandra and the other

Teacher Salary Hike Unlikely

Because of drastically limited finances, Superintendent Frederick E. Lucas said last week he cannot see how the Laguna Salada elementary school district can grant the salary increases requested by teachers.

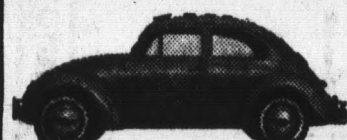

Previously, teacher spokesmen requested that a salary schedule ranging from a minimum of $5100 annually to $9780 be adopted for the coming year. This compares to the current schedule of from $5000 to $9160.

Final Schools Unity Vote Set

The San Mateo county committee on school reorganization will meet September 26 at 8 p.m. in the Westmoor High school library for a final vote on unification in the north county.

The committee will take a final vote on a proposal to unify five school districts into one.

Trailer Park Plan Dropped

Plans for a 400-unit trailer park in the Maestri Valley, at the extreme eastern end of Linda Mar boulevard in Pacifica, were dropped by owner Frank Maestri, he told the Pacifica planning commission regular meeting Monday night.

Maestri sometime ago had applied for a rezoning from agricultural to planned community district, with both the planners and the city council denied.

A master plan for the entire area might provide possibilities for the trailer park, the planners told Maestri, but added that he, Maestri, would have to pay the cost of preparing the plan.

City Hall Site Decision Nears

The new Daly City Hall will be located in the older section of the city or someplace close to it, Mayor Joseph Verducci told the Chamber of Commerce Thursday.

Verducci said the final selection "is not very far away at all."

The council announced last month that the number of sites under study for the past year and a half had been narrowed to two.

The council is waiting for the final appraiser's reports before making an announcement, he said.

"In making a selection," Verducci said, "we are looking to the future. We have to consider annexation growth and the total community as we envision it to be."

City Manager Edward Frank is exploring all avenues for state or county aid in the city hall project, Verducci said.

D.C. Woman Is Rescued By Firemen

Daly City firefighters rescued a woman from her smoke-filled house Saturday afternoon after the woman collapsed while trying to flee a fire that had started in her bedroom.

Rescued was Mrs. Clara Paulos, 45, of 52 Monterey street. Firemen found her lying at the front door in the living room of her one-story bungalow. She was suffering from burns and smoke inhalation.

Members of Engines 2 and 5 used a rescuator to revive her. She was taken to Kaiser Foundation hospital by Mercy ambulance.

Attendants said that en route to the hospital, her heart seemed to stop beating. She was revived again at the hospital, the attendants said.

A fireman, Paul de Natal, 41, suffered smoke inhalation. He was treated at Kaiser. Treated for a cut hand was another fireman, Capt. John Roy.

Battalion Chief Wayne Alexander estimated damage at $6000 to the house and $4000 to the contents.

He said the fire started in the bedroom, completely gutting it. Intense heat from the flames peeled paint throughout the house.

Mrs. Paulos apparently was in her kitchen cooking when she smelled smoke coming from the bedroom, Alexander reported. He said a housecoat she had been wearing had been burned to the waist.

Road Deaths Year's First

Daly City recorded its first traffic fatalities in 1963 Friday with the deaths of three persons. The three deaths in one night exceeded last year's total of two traffic deaths.

Teachers had asked annual increments of $360 based on experience and graduate college work.

Because of a continuing financial hardship, Lucas recommended a salary schedule ranging from $5100 to $9520. He pointed out that this is the first year he has not been able to concur in teachers' recommendations.

It was pointed out that trustees previously adopted a salary policy under which not less than 67 per cent nor more than 70 per cent of the total operating budget can be allocated to instruction salaries.

Much of what the district will be able to offer in the way of additional school services will depend on the outcome of pending bond issues.

Her Goal Is to Help Others

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles about two senior citizens organizations in Daly City and Pacifica and some of the key members in both groups.)

By LOUANNE HEATH
TO ATTEMPT to describe Edna Laurel Calhan, president of Pacifica's senior citizens group, the Fifty Plus club, is to undertake the impossible.

One might say that she is tall and stately and has lovely eyes, that her appearance is striking, and that she is gracious and has a quick and ready wit.

But such words would fall short of catching the essence of the spirit of this live-wire woman who is a composite of the past, the present and the future all intricately interwoven with a love of California.

What type of cataclysm gives rise to a personality as encompassing as Mrs. Calhan? Mrs. Calhan herself has a ready answer for this question and it is a simple, uncomplicated explanation that reflects a feeling of family responsibility and intra-family respect.

"My mother once asked me to represent her at a convention she was unable to attend. Mrs. Calhan said, 'and while I was attending the sessions, people kept saying the most wonderful things about my mother. 'Over and over again I

Two Killed When Cycle Hits Chain

Two men, trying out a new motorcycle, were killed Thursday evening when their cycle struck a chain closing off the Old Coast Highway in the southwest part of Daly City.

Dead are Richard P. Stump Jr., 25, of 110 Monterey road, Pacifica, and Darrel H. Coots, 27, of 1334 Balboa street, San Francisco.

Stump died at the scene. Coots died en route to the hospital, according to Mercy ambulance attendants.

Daly City patrolman Arthur Glass said it appeared from where the bodies were found that Stump had been driving the motorcycle.

The chain, about two and a half feet off the roadway, barred the entrance to a dump operated by the Daly City Scavenger company. It also served to close the highway at that point.

The Old Coast highway is open from its intersection with the Sausalito freeway in Pacifica, north to the dump.

The road is maintained by the state highway department. It is closed beyond the dump because of washouts.

A spokesman for the scavenger company said the firm has posted signs warning of the chain and road closing but that vandals have repeatedly torn the signs down.

The spokesman added that the company also at one time had erected a cyclone fence across the road but that it had been torn down and apparently used for kindling wood on beaches nearby.

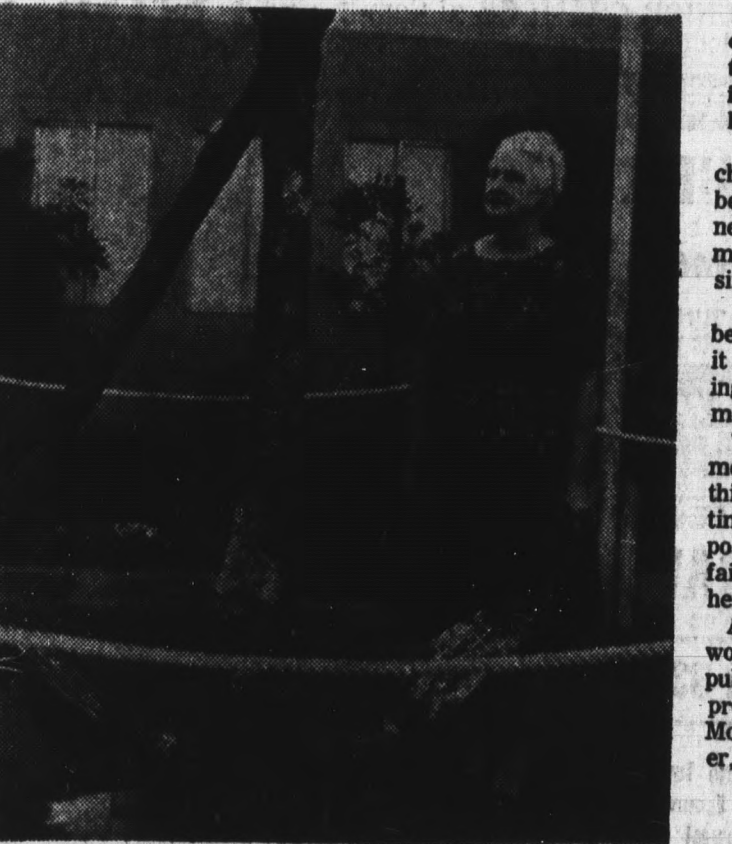

Glass said friends of the two men had told him the victims had purchased the motorcycle last Wednesday and were trying the machine out when they ran against the chain.

The riders had left Stump's home and had intended to return after taking the trial run. Stump is survived by his wife, (Please See Page 2, Column 3)

This charge later was changed to felony manslaughter. Mrs. Vornoli was rushed to Kaiser Foundation hospital in South San Francisco by Mercy ambulance and then transferred to Peninsula hospital.

Authorities said she had suffered a broken pelvis, broken (Please See Page 2, Column 3)

Chamber Is Worried Over Inference on Directory

The board of directors of the Daly City-Cosima Chamber of Commerce expressed concern Thursday over "inferred" sponsorship of a city business directory.

Some members said they had been approached by persons selling space in a city directory.

The inference they received, members said, was that the directory was being sponsored by the chamber although the so-called didn't say it was.

A picture publicizing the sale of the brochure is being used in the sales message, members added. The picture shows chamber director Fred Martin inspecting a dummy copy of the brochure.

The board of directors had voted against sponsoring the brochure but the picture was published before the vote was held.

Board Defers Hours Action

Discussion of a standard 40-hour week for all city employees was postponed by the Daly City personnel board Thursday.

In other action, the board elected Albert Polonsky chairman to replace John Drye, who resigned last month.

The board asked the city manager and representatives of an employees union to submit written arguments and statistics for and against the proposal, which was referred back to the board last week by the city council.

City Manager Edward Frank reported at the last council meeting that nine male employees and all women employees in the city work only 37½ hours compared to 40 hours by the remainder of the male employees.

The council sent back the city managers' recommendation that a standard 40-hour week for all employees be established while granting them a 2½ to 7 per cent pay increase.

The board also will consider a shift pay differential and premium pay on Saturdays and Sundays for city employees.

Ex-Humboldt Star to Lead Grid Tigers

Robert Eugene McKarney, former Humboldt State college football star, has been named football coach of the Terra Nova Tigers.

He succeeds Floyd Gonella who has been appointed Dean of Boys at Terra Nova.

McKarney, known as "Gene" to associates, was co-captain of the Humboldt team in his senior year in 1951. In addition to football, he also played basketball and was a member of the track team at Humboldt.

At Terra Nova, McKarney will be an assistant track coach and will teach social science in addition to guiding the fortunes of the Tigers on the football field.

For the past six years, he has coached football at South Fork High school in Miranda, near Eureka, where he was a varsity line coach for three years before taking the helm of the varsity squad.

He is married and the father of two children, six and eight years old.

WESTLAKE SHOPPING CENTER

A Youngsters' Dog Show Set

The Westlake Shopping center's month-long Pirates' Gold promotion will be highlighted this weekend by a youngster's dog show, sponsored jointly by center merchants and the Ken-L-Ration division of the Quaker Oats company.

The show will begin at 9 Saturday morning with the registration of dogs and their young owners.

Judging will begin at 10 a.m.

Five divisions will be scheduled. Trophies will be given for the largest dog, the smallest dog, the dog performing the best tricks, the best-costumed dog and the dog with the longest tail.

Judges also will select a best-of-show dog.

Bert Felinton, president of the Westlake Shopping center Merchants' association, said each youngster who enters a dog will receive a package of gifts.

Entry blanks are available at center stores.

All dogs entered in the show must be clean, combed and brushed. Participants will be asked to keep their dogs on leash and under control. Free leashes will be provided to owners who do not have one.

Airport Tax Break Pending

San Francisco may get a break on its tax bill at International airport after all.

San Mateo County Manager E. R. Stallings said Thursday he has agreed to negotiate a possible basis upon which the state board of equalization could order a reduction in the valuation assigned to the airport property by the office of County Assessor Ralph B. Woodman.

The possible basis, Stallings said, would be that the property is less valuable than surrounding property because San Francisco is required to provide fire, police and other services at the airport, services which are provided by local public jurisdictions elsewhere.

St. Francis Square Sets 'Circus Days'

The circus is coming to St. Francis Square Shopping center! Shopping center president William Schaefer today announced a "fun-filled" five-day promotion built around the theme, "Circus Days." The event will start Wednesday, July 24.

The program will include 10 amusement rides ranging from merry-go-rounds to "tilt-a-whirl," and will also offer a special "kid-die-land" section for smaller youngsters.

Half-price tickets for the rides are being offered in all shopping center stores, according to Schaefer.

Other features of the event include a free puppet show and the appearance of a popular TV personality on Saturday, July 27. Schaefer added, "Stores are also planning special retail tie-ins in keeping with the festive circus atmosphere," the association president said.

The program will run from July 24 through Sunday, July 28. Rides will be open daily from noon. The center is located at Southgate avenue and St. Francis boulevard in the St. Francis Heights section of Daly City.

Four Injured In Collision

A family of four suffered minor injuries Thursday afternoon when their car and a tractor collided at Hillside boulevard and Price street in Daly City.

Treated at Kaiser Foundation hospital for cuts and bruises were:

James E. Kelly, 28, of Hayward, driver of the auto; his mother, Doris Kelly, 47, and his two sons, John Kelly, 7, and James Kelly Jr., 5.

Police identified the driver of the tractor as LeRoy Margrave, 61, of San Mateo.

Colma Cyclists Injured

Two Colma brothers were hurt Saturday when their bicycle collided with an auto on El Camino Real at the entrance to Eternal Home cemetery. The boys, Jeffe Johnson, 11, and Denney, 8, of 571 D street, were taken to Kaiser hospital.

By Le Pacini

JIM DAVIS is a Daly City resident, not too unlike many others. He has his own growing business, is the father of a teen-ager who loves sports, is active in church activities and barbecues when weather allows. Such was not always so tranquil for Jim, however. He played professional baseball for better than 15 years, four of them in the majors, and had the weird experience of losing a game because he tied a major league record and of at least partially being forced into retirement because of his own peculiar left-handed effectiveness.

"No sour grapes intended," says Davis who never uses a word stronger than golly, "because a big reason for my quitting prematurely (he quit at 34, is now 38) was my current business opportunity. But to this day, I feel that had I had a manager at the time who had the right philosophy on the knuckleball, I might still be in the majors, possibly with the Giants."

Jim's last job in the majors was with the Giants, the year before their move west.

"I was real disappointed—not being able to play out my career with my home team," says Davis, a Red Bluff boy who moved to San Francisco in his teens, and pitched for Polytechnic High school. "But Bill Rigney just didn't have any faith in me."

Nor did then St. Louis manager Fred Hutchinson with whom Jim started the '57 season at St. Louis.

"Hutch had Murry Dickson, Hoyt Wilhelm and me in the bull pen. At the time, we were about the only pitchers in the league who relied primarily on the knuckleball. Hutch hated knuckleballers, contending that while they were tough to hit, they could just as easily lose a game in a tight situation by pass-balling runners home. He just didn't use us."

(Combined, the three pitched only 68 games for the Cards that year, all of them being dealt off — Wilhelm to Cleveland toward the end of the season, Dickson to Kansas City at season's end, and Davis to the Giants at about mid-season.)

RIGNEY DIDN'T use Jim any more than Hutchinson had (10 games), and the next year he was asked to report to Phoenix, the top Giant farm club at the time. He refused.

"Not so much because it was the minors per se, but because I wasn't about to endure that climate at half the salary I had received the year before," Davis explains.

Dewey Soriano, now Pacific Coast league prexy but then Seattle general manager, got permission to deal with Davis. Remembering Dewey as the man who had sent him to the majors from Seattle in 1954, Jim signed but reported on crutches. He had sprained his ankle in his capacity as batting practice pitcher for the Our Lady of Mercy church baseball team.

When Sacramento moved to Hawaii, Jim was sold to Portland, but never did report.

He was sold to Sacramento the next year when his old buddy Hutchinson returned to Seattle.

"Sacramento was going out of business. You just don't ride back to the majors at age 34 with a team getting out of it all, and I had just about decided to give it up."

Looking back, Davis, who shows a total big league won-lost record of 24-26, primarily as a reliever and spot starter with second division clubs, says that he might have been more successful had he been able to stick with Stan Hack, his original major league manager.

He could have packed a catcher around with him who could catch knuckleballs. Jim's best year was with Hack when as a freshman with the dismal seventh place Cubs, he compiled an 11-7 record. The next year with Hack and a sixth place team, his record was reversed, but he was actually as effective as he had been the year before, saving about a dozen games in relief.

"Hack would throw me into any relief situation. He always told me that he knew I could get 'em out, and I believed him, and usually did get them out."

Then came management and team changes and Jim's troubles as a knuckleball pitcher. There are now probably at least a dozen pitchers in the majors who win with virtually nothing but knuckleballs. Perhaps Davis was born too soon.

DESPITE HIS busy schedule with his Jim Davis Enterprises (he operates an athletic equipment and renovating firm) and youth programs, he still finds time to keep up his rabid interest in baseball.

He doesn't see how the Giants, with all of that power, can lose the pennant ("maybe the best talent in baseball") and figures the Dodgers can't possibly sustain themselves down the stretch on two pitchers, a leaky infield and lack of real power.

He attributes the fantastic pitching this season to "just one of those years," more than to the new strike zone or any of the other theories now prevalent.

"Pitching is always stronger in the first half than the last and I think things will even out."

The smartest man in baseball? Easy. Paul Richards. "He's fantastic," says Jim who was under Richards' aegis at Seattle in the early 1950s. "He knows more about baseball and has introduced more innovations into the game than any man alive. He actually invented the 'slip' pitch. I was one of his original proteges with that pitch, and it helped me plenty. Although it's ordinarily just a straight change-up mine often broke like a screwball."

"One time I struck out Alvin Dark with one and the next day he says to me, 'Where did you come up with the screwball all of a sudden?' I'd never thrown one in my life, but thinking quick, I tell him I had been working on it. Alvin was looking for that 'screwball' the rest of the year. As Lew Burdette says of his spitball, that turned out to be just about the best pitch I never threw."

Sierra Course

Sierra Pines Golf and Country club, Tuolumne county's newest golf course, is now open to the public.

The new 9-hole layout, situated in the heart of Sonoma pass vacationland at Twin Harbors, is just one mile off State Highway 108. This 3600-yard, par 36 course was designed and built by Earl Scannell, noted for his golf course design and construction.

Intermediate League All Stars

Summer Loop Action Starts

First round action in the Daly City Recreation department's summer basketball league was fast and furious at the War Memorial and Westmoor High gyms.

In Long division play, the Gunners barely nipped the Clodhoppers 38-35 behind the backcourt shooting of Dan Crowe and Ed Rickenbacher who scored 14 and 12 points respectively.

Bill Jones' 17 points and Steve Willis' 10 points and high jumping rebounding was not enough as the Clodhoppers were forced to play with only four men.

At the Westmoor gym, the Rams totally submerged the Rascals 56-20.

John Price's 17 points and fine backcourt play, Capt. Bill Wuergher's tough rebounding and 17 points, and Jerry Donovan's 17 points were all that were needed to tame the Rascals. Bill Wiprecht's eight points were tops for the Pacific-based five.

Short division action saw only one league game with the Nats defeating the Breakers 38-15. All five starters contributing to their team's victory.

Greg Brenk led the Nats' scoring with 10 points. Roger Foss and Don Lippi each contributed eight while Bob Langsam and John Heick chipped in with six. Dale Telegan and Jim Varner each contributed four points in the Breakers' losing cause.

Practice games in both divisions saw the Clippers trounce the Celtics 69-31 behind the 14-point performances of Willie Mack, Willie Jones and Al Weaver.

IN NATIONAL TOURNEY Ram Golfer Wins Berth

Westmoor High's top golfer for the past two seasons, senior Jim Fair, will be one of two prep golfers to represent Northern California at the National Junior championships in Florence, South Carolina.

Fair fired a two-over-par 74 at the Lake Merced Golf course to earn the national berth. He was one stroke behind Len Studinger of Burlingame High school.

Fair and Studinger whipped a star-studded junior field of 90 to qualify for the nationals.

The Westmoor golfer was two-under-par going onto the eleventh hole where he double bogged. He also got bogies on the sixteenth and seventeenth hole to card his 74.

He was San Mateo county medalist last year when he shot a 68 at the San Mateo Golf club and was runnerup in the Pacific Open held last month.

Fair's father, George Fair, an employee of the Jefferson High school district for the past 16 years, is also a golfer of note in the Daly City area.

The duo teamed up in the Father-Son tournament at Golden Gate Golf course last year where they were medalists.

Expenses for the trip have been estimated at over $400 for the Daly City youth, who cannot accept sponsorship by any commercial firm and Fair may have trouble raising funds for the trip.

Saints Lead Summer Loop

Behind the three-hit pitching of Jim Weber, the San Francisco Saints nine has emerged as the leaders of the Tri-City Summer Baseball league sponsored by the Daly City Recreation department.

The Excelsior district club defeated the Westmoor A C 4-1 in Marchbanks park.

A timely bunt by Saint first-sacker Jim Papalias and a well executed hit and run single by Frank Cutane led the Saints to tribute three hits to the San Francisco club's attack.

Westmoor A C hurler Mike Krnich was foiled in his attempt for a third straight victory.

Moving into a second place tie with the Westmoor club, the Jefferson AC club behind the one-hit shutout pitching of George Egan defeated the Balieff Construction AC 4-0.

Doubles by Dan Caffaretta and Jerry Benson and two singles by right fielder Kenny Smith drove in the runs needed for Jefferson. Egan struck out four of the South City batters in posting his second shutout and victory of the year.

Opposing pitcher Larry Sanchez was the only Balieff batter to garner a hit off the hard working Daly City sophomore.

The fourth round action this Sunday at Marchbanks features the battle for second place between the Westmoor AC and Jefferson AC clubs at 12:30 p.m.

The Colma diamond will see the El Camino AC and Saints in action. Sunday's 3 p.m. game at Marchbanks will be the South Sunset AC and Balieff Construction battle.

OLM kept up their winning ways downing the PAL Indians 7-0 this week. The Cardinals had some close calls as the PAL Braves made them fight for a 1-0 win and they edged by the PAL Yankees in a 5-4 close.

The last game of the league will most likely decide the race tomorrow when the Birds meet the Leopards at South Westlake.

The PAL Giants continue to lead the American division of the midget league.

In this week's action, they downed the Misracks club 5-1.

OLPH Golds hold second place but they dropped one to Misracks 6-0 this week. The Holy Angels Lions are right on the Golds' trail and could tie it up with one win.

Rock Kubowitz's PAL Dodgers continue to play the part of the untouchables in the Intermediate league. Ben Franklin Press, Relish Bakery and the Bender Roofers are all tied up for second place.

George Pedroni's PAL Tigers downed the PAL Cubs in a 5-2 ball game this week.

BYA Skyline hold second place in the junior league with an 11-5 record. There is little chance of their catching the Tigers 13-1-1.

Judo Meet Set For Westmoor

More than 250 of the top judo athletes in the Bay Area will compete at Westmoor High school Sunday, August 11.

They will be competing in the final preliminaries of the American Athletic Union Junior Olympic Judo tournament.

The tournament will be sponsored by the Koyukan Judo club and the Northern California Judo Black Belt association.

First and second place winners will be eligible to compete in a championship tournament in Palo Alto at a date to be announced.

The competition at Westmoor is open to any boy 16 years of age and younger who is a registered member of the Pacific association of the AAU.

Registration forms may be obtained the morning of the tournament at the high school.

Weigh-ins will be conducted from 11 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. The first bout will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Six weight divisions are scheduled.

Management of the tournament will be by the Junior Olympic committee of the Pacific association.

DALY CITY CYCLIST

Staub Keeps Championship

Daly City bicyclist Dave Staub, gold medalist, Staub took two third place finishes there.

Private First Class Staub, who in civilian life resides with his parents at 386 Eastmoor avenue, placed first in three of the four competitive events: the 1000 meter sprint and the five-mile open race.

He will compete for the sixth championships to be staged this year at Northbrook, Ill. during the last week in August.

Prior to the Northbrook test, the 23-year-old speedster will race in the World Cycling championships, beginning August 1 at Liege, Belgium.

Staub is the army's lone representative among a select half-dozen American cyclists who will pedal around Liege's mammoth Velodrome.

Some 75,000 spectators are expected to witness these events, which for the amateur riders, is Europe's prelude to the Olympic Games.

For the professionals, who of course are not eligible to compete in the Olympics, the Belgium competition is the "big one."

In April, Staub won a berth on the Pan American cycling team and represented the United States at Sao Paulo, Brazil.

A 1:11 clocking for the 1000 meters, the fastest time of his career, was only good enough for a fifth place.

In 1959, Staub placed second in the Pan American Games with a 1:12.4.

Touching another point on the compass, he next competed in the Trinidad Cycling championships. Trinidad is the home of Roly Gibbon, Pan American

Westlake Bowl

AS PART of the Westlake merchants' pirate's gold treasure chest promotion, the Westlake Bowl will offer a bonanza for weekend bowlers Saturdays and Sundays, July 20-21 and 27. All persons over eighteen years of age bowling on these days will receive a free chance on valuable merchandise prizes with the winners being drawn Saturday night, July 27.

Vern Taylor and Don Acton provided the power in the American Masters 900 Scratch league Tuesday night as Vern rolled a big 230 game and 610 series while Don posted a 211 game and 606 series.

Once again, Bill Gregori topped the 815 Scratch league, shooting a 198 game and 567 series.

The fifth annual Daly City Police Athletic league tournament continues to surpass last year's turnout. Last Wednesday morning found 17 ladies from Bel Mateo bowl on hand to help the youth program of Daly City. Honey Steele led the scoring with 593, followed by Pat Tuohy with 568.

Playing the part of leading lady in the Starliners league was Maxine Chalka as she rolled a big 185 game and 506 series.

The many merchants and businessmen who have contributed prizes to the current and past Daly City Police Athletic league benefit bowling tournaments will be honored on "PAL Merchants Night" July 27. There will be bowling at 7 p.m., dancing at 9 p.m. and buffet at 11 p.m. The total cost of $3 will include a $1 donation to the Police Athletic league.

Canco bowlers of the week were Lee Chappat and Percy Benson, both of whom bowled high games of 200 with Percy taking high series with 540, 45 pins better than Lee.

BOB RATHMAN rolled a tremendous 265 game to top the Southgate Mixed Fives with a 569 series while June Tarczy led the ladies with a 161 game and 446 series.

In the Early Fives league, Art Moniz led the way as he rolled a 180 game and 527 series.

Shooting a big 223 game, Thelma Stetz missed a six hundred series by only six pins as she topped the Ladies' 650 Classic for the week.

Ben Angel took his spot as a league leader for the first time when he bowled a 231 game and 574 series to top the Country Club Handicap league.

Walter Walter's 213 game and 559 series gave him top honors for the week in the B'nai B'rith league.

Westlake bowl's top money winners among the ladies were honored at a buffet last Saturday evening at the bowl. Bonnie Birkett's Bombers were in the higher brackets, having won a total of $800 while the members of the Cardinal Electric and Westlake Tigers teams each split $200.

Lefthanders will have their day in the sun at Westlake from July 27 to September 1 as the first annual Ora Swanson Southpaw Doubles and Singles sets underway.

Serra Bowl

JOHNNY ELLIS led his Cost Plus team to a 4-0 sweep over Johnny's Auto Supply five in the summer Pilots league. John started slowly with a 142 game but soon bounced back with a mighty 228 game and closed with a 183 effort for a fine 551 trio. Top score for the losers was John Mahoney's 209-459 series.

Another big winner was on the adjoining pair of lanes; Team 7 trimmed all four games from Western Carloading despite a 26 pin handicap giveaway. Rich Rancatore shot high for the lucky "7" with 209-538 while John Troupe did his best for the carloaders with a 208-544 tally.

The big money in Wednesday night's Scotch Doubles at Serra was won by Doug Peters and Lu Lucero with a 696 score. The most interesting news, however, was that Doug and Lu scored a rare Dutch 200 game midway in their series. This was all the more amazing when you consider that in this tournament partners throw alternate balls!

Mill Boaz, 158 average bowler in the 810 Scratch league, helped his Flying Goose team to a three-game victory over Ed Michaels Contractors last week with his strong 218-603 shooting. Art Michael paced the victims with a 506 effort.

The newly formed Junior-Senior Scratch league for boys Thursday evenings at Serra is producing its share of top scores in the house lately. Dan Gadd blasted this loop's best score to date last week with a towering 233-654 threesome. Other high rollers were Dan Hyman with 223 and 552 and Bob Doyle who tossed 207 and 511 in the hottest kind of competition.

ACTION IS hot and heavy in day-time ladies' leagues this summer. Bette Weissman topped 213-514 in the Morning Glories league as her Mixed Up Foursome took a 2-1 decision from the Misfits team last Tuesday. In Summerettes league action, Roberta Lahtinen's 207-536 was high total as the Knockers Down swept three points from the Hits 'n Mrs.

Sea Bowl

RONALD LEWIS bowling for Ed Duffys in the Sea Breeze league, took over high game from Bob Nelson (what happened to your hand Bob) by rolling seven strikes in a row for a nice 256-595. There was also a bright spot in the Kings and Queens league as Sharon McGuinness did some beautiful bowling. She started with 177 and finished her series with 245 and 239 for a big 661.

Ladies interested in free bowling instruction classes, starting at 10 a.m. tomorrow—please contact Pat Armstrong or Lois Ricci. Playroom facilities will be available.

League scores: 680 Scratch Fours: Dan Barnes 214-802, Gabby Mattson 232-775. Pro Match: Bob Peterson 215-623, John Lew 201-574. Sea Breeze: Dee Dennehy 156-452, Shirley Reinhardt 167-447, Roland Lewis 256-595, Lag Laganier 212-537. 525 Scratch Trio: Ralph Edwards 235-900, Bob Peterson 223-788, Gil Thiele 212-784. Glamour Grammys: Fern Cohn 208-463, Myri Hazen 165-446, Ruth Wittlake 149-442.

Mix Masters: John Lew 191-524, Phil Sorenson 190-521, Bada Beach 154-428, Dot West 160-452. Aquanauts: Lois Talbot 213-529, Wilma Henshall 172-435, Stella Connelly 147-407. Alley Holics: Jane Carver 189-527, Eda Molinari 162-451, Judy Vlahovich 154-391. Stardusters: Agnes Talbot 167-482, Joan Garnett 170-476, Etta Tompkins 178-474.

Neptune's Daughters: Maria Hurtado 194-480, Phyllis Crisp 176-470, Lou Engelman 169-466. Thursday Ladies Scratch: Betty Scharton 200-498, Eleanor Payne 159-444, Gladys Kuhn 150-436. In the Moonlite doubles, Betty and Pete Thomas tied for first place with Les and Melba Myer with a 590.

GETS ALL-STAR BID

CHICAGO — Junious Buchanan of Grambling, a 6-foot, 7-inch, 200-pound tackle signed by the Dallas Texans (now the Kansas City Chiefs) of the American Football League, has been invited to play in the 30th annual All-Star football classic Aug. 2, in which college All-Stars will play the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League.

Fishing Wasn't Good This Year

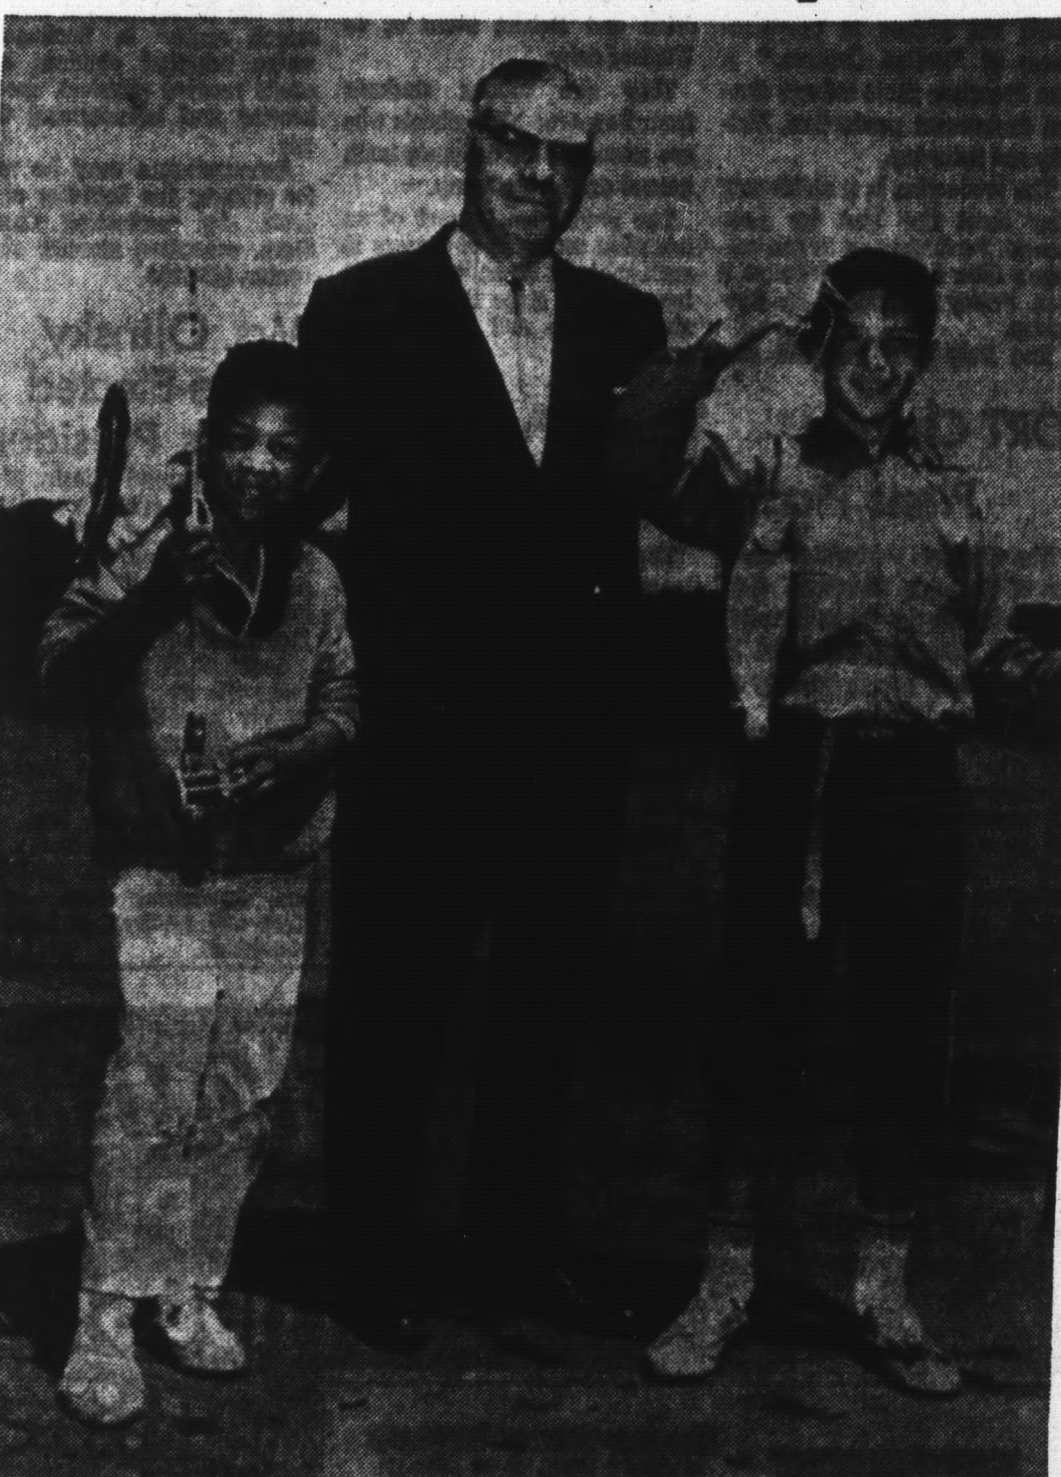

FISHING PARTY — From the looks of things here, it doesn't appear the fish have much of a chance. These youngsters were part of a turnout of some 140 Daly City junior fishermen who, as guests of the Daly City-Colma Lions club, tried their luck in Lake Merced last Wednesday morning. Supervision was provided by the Daly City Recreation department. (Post-Times Photo)

They Were Lucky

Merced's Trout Weren't Biting

The fishing, all hands sadly lamented, wasn't good this year at the Daly City-Colma Lions club annual fishing derby.

The derby was staged last Wednesday morning in bright, warm weather at Lake Merced, close by the boathouse.

Although more than 140 youngsters, guests of the Lions, eagerly dipped their lines into the water, their targets for the day—the lake's good-sized stock of trout—weren't biting.

Winner of the derby was Bruce Pope of 1135 Eighty-seventh street who caught a fine-looking trout that measured 12 inches. He won a fishing pole for his efforts.

After the derby, both youngsters and members of the Lions club sat down to a picnic lunch under shade trees by the lake.

Supervision for the fishing derby was provided by the Daly City Recreation department, which also arranged transportation for the young fishermen.

Casualier Club to Visit Rodeo

Boys' division, ages 12-15: Roy a.m. with an approximate return Teen club and their guests as at 7:30 p.m. they will journey to the California Rodeo at Salinas.

Cost of the trip is $2 which includes the price of admission, transportation and insurance. The trip for all seventh and eighth buses will leave the War Me-grade youngsters.

Sugar 'n' Spice

By Nell Norton

IT SEEMS we had better start right off by re-printing the recipe for orange pecan icebox cookies. Because someplace between leaving my typewriter and reaching the paper, some ingredients fell out.

ORANGE PECAN ICEBOX COOKIES

- 1 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 cup pecans, crushed or chopped
- 1 egg
- 2 3/4 cups flour
- 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 2 Tbsp. orange juice

Cream butter. Add sugars, egg and orange juice. Beat until smooth. Sift together flour and soda, stir into first mixture. Add nuts. Shape into rolls two inches in diameter and wrap in waxed paper. Chill thoroughly. Slice very thin and bake in 375-degree oven for eight to 10 minutes. Makes 6 dozen cookies.

RECENTLY someone asked me if I had a recipe for a salmon casserole that used crushed soda crackers as an ingredient. I didn't but it brought to mind a dish my mother used to make, using milk, crushed crackers and oysters in a casserole. Do any of you good cooks have such a recipe? I'd like very much to have it.

This salmon casserole doesn't use crackers but crushed corn flakes instead and it makes a nice fish dish.

SALMON SATISFACTION

- 2 Tbsp. finely chopped onion
- 2 Tbsp. finely chopped pimento
- 1/4 cup finely chopped celery
- 3 Tbsp. melted butter
- 2 Tbsp. flour
- 1 scant teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 1 cup milk
- 2 Tbsp. mayonnaise (level)
- 1 pound can pink salmon
- 1 1/2 cups crushed corn flakes

Saute onions, pimento and celery in butter until tender (do not brown). Stir in flour, salt, pepper, egg milk and mayonnaise. Cook, stirring constantly until slightly thickened. Drain salmon, remove bones and separate into small portions.

Arrange in greased one-quart baking dish. Sprinkle half the crushed corn flakes over the salmon. Pour the sauce over this and sprinkle remaining crumbs over all. Bake in 350-degree oven about 20 minutes. Makes six servings.

SINCE YOU are busy crushing corn flakes you may as well crush some graham crackers and try this dessert. It's really easy to make and makes a generous and eye-appealing treat.

CHERRY CREAM DESSERT

- 1 1/4 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 3 Tbsp. sugar
- 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
- 1 package (8 ounce) cream cheese
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1/2 pint whipping cream
- 1 can cherry pie filling

Crust: Combine sugar and crumbs, add melted butter and mix thoroughly. Pack mixture in bottom of pan (nine by six inches).

Filling: Let cheese soften at room temperature. Blend in sugar thoroughly, then fold in stiffly whipped cream. Spread over crust. Top with cherry filling. Refrigerate until thoroughly chilled, about four hours. (It's even better if made the day before serving.) Makes eight servings.

SFS Slates French Play

Eugene Labiche's, "An Italian Straw Hat," since its first performance in Paris in 1851, has become established as a masterpiece of French humor. For many years has been in the repertoire of the Comedie Francaise.

As the second of its summer festival of arena plays, San Francisco State college theater will present, "An Italian Straw Hat," for 8 performances, opening tomorrow and running through July 27.

Stuart Chenoweth will stage the production. He has newly translated the play from the French.

Tickets and information may be obtained from the creative arts box office, 1600 Holloway avenue, San Francisco, JU 5-7174.

Bureau Asks Volunteer Aid For Visiting

The Volunteer Bureau has urged all peninsula residents who can give a few hours a week to help elderly people, children and teen-agers; the blind, mentally retarded, sick and handicapped to contact them at 119 Primrose road, Burlingame.

Existentialism Talks Planned By University

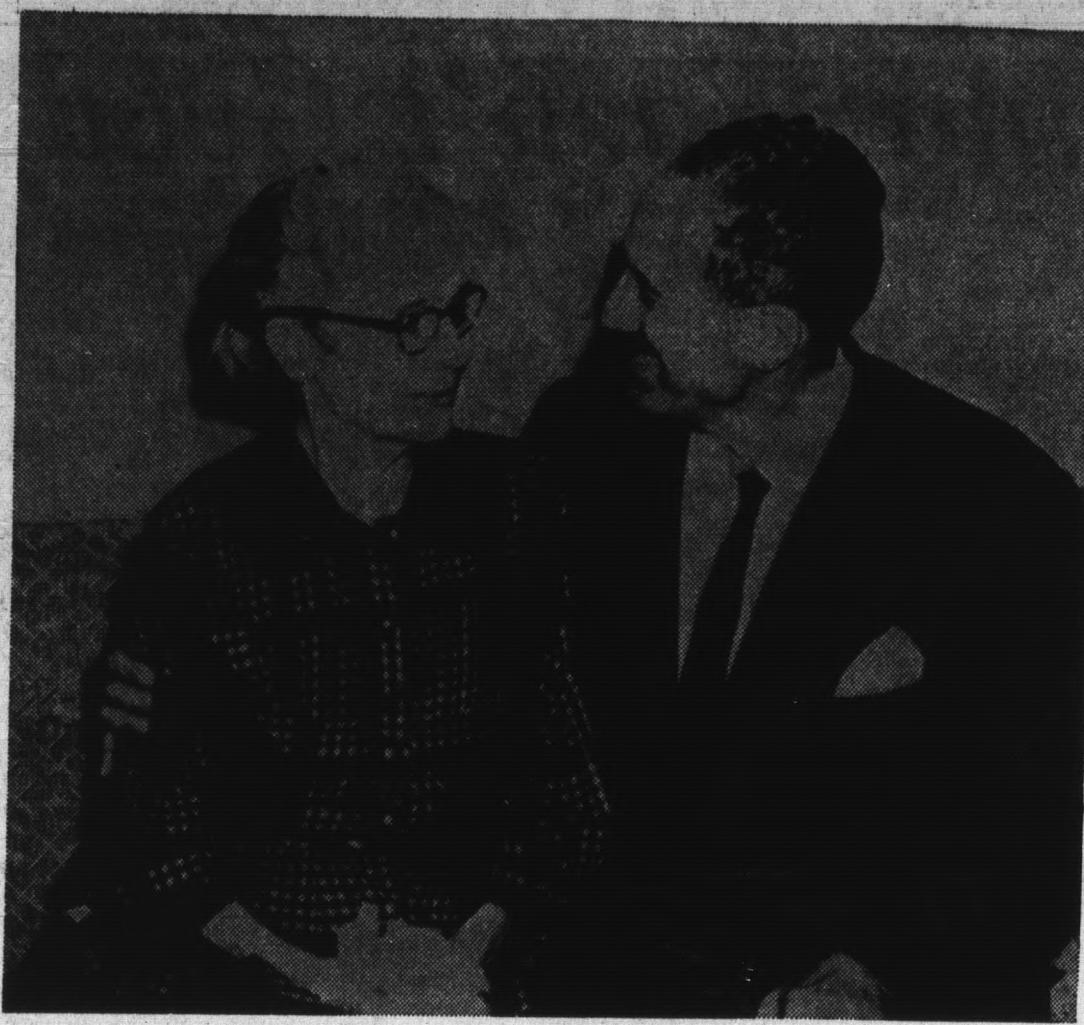

Two of the 20th century's most provocative philosophies and their impact on contemporary thought are the subject of a week-long program, "Existentialism and Zen: Cross-currents in Art and Culture," to be presented by the University of California extension at Asilomar, on the Monterey peninsula, Sunday through July 20.

Designed to provide a wide-ranging survey of existentialist thinking as it influences present-day theology, psychotherapy, literature and drama, the program will present lectures, analyses of classic existentialist texts, film screenings, poetry readings and small group seminars.

The examination of Zen Buddhism will include discussions of its philosophical implications, its appearance in Oriental poetry, and its influence on art. Speakers and their topics include:

Edward C. Hobbs, professor of theology at Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, "Existentialism and Theology"; psychoanalyst and author Rollo May, "Existential Psychotherapy"; Stanley L. Cavell, Harvard university philosopher currently at the Princeton Institute for advanced study, "Some Themes of Existentialism"; and

Fifty-four Years Later

A LONG SEPARATION—Mrs. Guido Casentini of 124 Mateo avenue, Daly City, is embraced by her brother, Bruno Menicucci, after his arrival here from Italy for a visit. They had not seen each other for 54 years. Menicucci is a well known sculptor and artist in Northern Italy. Mrs. Casentini had cared for her brother after their mother had died shortly after he was born. She has been a Daly City resident for the past 47 years.

UC Extension Center Plans Study Program

The critical questions of American economic policy today — the growth rate of the economy, U. S. - Common Market relations, the public debt and the role of government in the economy — are being analyzed "American Economic Issues" at the University of California Extension center, 55 Laguna street, San Francisco.

Weekly lecture meetings and seminars are scheduled Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. through August 2. Directing the study program is UC professor of economics John M. Letichie and economics instructor Saul H. Hymans.

The program is designed to provide a background on which informed judgments can be made on questions of public policy relating to economic goals and courses of action.

Enrollment forms and a complete program schedule may be obtained from the center in Berkeley, TH 5-6000, or by calling UN 1-6833.

D.C. Students In Drama

Two Daly City high school students will appear in performances of "Indian Captive," a San Francisco State college drama department production, Friday and Saturday.

The production is a children's play about the West by Lois Lenski. Performances in the college's little theater will be at 8 p.m. Friday and 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

The Daly City students are

Ron Wagner of 78 Northgate drive and Robert Stein of 43 Windsor drive.

They are among students from Bay Area high schools who are attending the college's tenth annual drama workshop.

The production is part of an intensive semester of classes in such subjects as acting, oral interpretation, stage lighting, theater makeup and body movement.

ORT Chapter Coast Fuchsia Plans Picnic Group to Meet

The Central Peninsula Chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) will hold its annual family picnic Sunday at Adobe Creek lodge.

Barbecue pits and swimming and other recreational facilities will be available.

A special section of the lodge will be set aside for members, their families and friends. The committee is planning a wide variety of games for which prizes will be awarded.

The Pacifica Branch of the American Fuchsia society will meet at 8 p.m., Friday at the Pacific Manor school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson of the San Mateo Fuchsia branch will present fuchsia films in color. The public is invited.

Preceding the meeting will be a tour of a fuchsia garden at the Eljah Gentry home at 412 Fremont street, Edgemar, from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m.

Handicapped At Easter Seal Camp

More than a score to San Mateo county handicapped children are at the Easter Seal camp for crippled children at Stevens Creek, near Cupertino.

The announcement was made by St. George Lafitte, Menlo Park, president of the Crippled Children and Adults society of San Mateo county.

Many of the children are there as the result of contributions of the Rotary clubs, San Mateo lodge of Elks, Lions and Kiwanis clubs to the fund of the society.

The cost is $105 per child for a two-week period and plans are now underway to solicit contributions for larger number of crippled children from San Mateo county to attend next year.

Donors are invited to contact the Rehabilitation center at 1764 Marco Polo way, Burlingame, for details.

Because of the children's handicapped condition, the camp is the only chance for many of them to gain a first-hand knowledge of nature and the benefits of living, playing and learning with other children at a resident summer camp.

The Easter Seal camp is supervised by a professional camp director, whose staff of counselors has been specially trained in working with crippled children.

Virtually all of the facilities and equipment of the camp are either specially designed or modified for the use of the handicapped youngsters.

The summer camp is one of many major activities of the Easter Seal society, which operates the Rehabilitation and Research center in Burlingame, where crippled children and adults receive physical, speech, hearing and occupational therapy.

Arrangements may be made for utilizing the facilities of the center by contacting Charles Stern, executive director of the center, 697-8924.

Mrs. Olinsky Is Re-Elected As President

Mrs. Raymond Olinsky of San Bruno will serve a second term as president of Central Peninsula Chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) for the year 1963-1964.

Assisting Mrs. Olinsky will be these officers:

Vice presidents: Mrs. Bernard Davis, Mrs. Stewart Feldstein; secretaries: Mrs. Arthur Glick, Mrs. Ruben Kesler, Mrs. William Kurtz, Mrs. Albert Montiel; treasurer: Mrs. Bert Phillips; historian: Mrs. Jerome Karp and adviser, Mrs. Robert Mendelson.

Louanne's Datebook

By Louanne Heath

MRS. DOROTHY BERGIN, publicity chairman for the Memory Lane fashion show to be presented October 19 in the Thunderbird motel in Millbrae has announced that the committee has secured commitments from the New England Shop and the Fashion to present collections of styles. Also to be modeled in the affair, being sponsored by the Mother's club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, are furs by Joseph Green.

Coffeours will be by Lorraine Wiles Salon of Hair Styling and Colorists and makeup will be provided by Claire Griffin of Merle Norman Studios.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY ROGERS and sons, David and Keith have been spending the past week-ends in Boulder Creek, helping prepare Roger's parent's cabin for permanent occupancy as soon as the senior Rogers retires later this year.

Also on the summer agenda of Mrs. Rogers and the boys is a week to be spent visiting members of the family in San Jose.

No matter how carefully planned a wedding may be, invariably some small unexpected thing happens to cause a few good natured chuckles among the guests if not always among the members of the bridal party.

The marriage of Maureen Adair Swanson to George William Oleyar of Westlake was a lavishly beautiful affair. Approximately 500 guests filled the Lakeside Presbyterian church in San Francisco to see the Rev. Clark Neale Edwards, the Rev. James Hart and the Rev. Ronald Clark conduct the service of worship during which the couple were married.

The bride, dressed in a lovely gown of silk organza and satin, was serenely beautiful as she and the handsome groom left the church for a reception at the Red Chimney restaurant. Before the bridal couple left the reception, they were slightly upset by a number of comic errors and mishaps.

First unscheduled event occurred when the wedding party left the church for the reception without two of the bridesmaids. The girls, in all their wedding finery, walked three blocks from the church to the reception, arriving only slightly late.

Things then proceeded smoothly until it was time for Maureen and George to leave and it was discovered that the excited groom had failed to bring a tie to wear with his going-away suit.

"The picture of them leaving the reception is just terrible," said Mrs. Margaret Swanson, the mother of the bride. Too many things going on I guess.

An unfortunate case of car trouble was responsible for the shortening of a camping trip to the high Sierra by the Richard Lapeman family.

Especially disappointed by the early return to San Bruno were the four little Lapemans.

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE BARNES of Pacific Heights, welcomed a little daughter to their family recently. The junior miss has three older brothers.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID KRUMPE of South San Francisco have announced that they will move to Napa in August.

Krumpe, who has been teaching at San Francisco's Lowell High school, has accepted a position on the faculty of Redwood Junior High school in Napa.

Doelger Builders incorporated, and Rabbi Herbert Morris, spiritual leader of Congregation Judea. The Doelger firm is building the temple.

Work Begins on Temple Judea

The realization of a long-held dream came to pass this week, when Temple Judea, presently located at 95 South Mayfair Avenue in Westlake and the first Reform Jewish Congregation to be organized in San Francisco in over 100 years, started construction of their new Temple on Brotherhood Way—near Parkmerced.

The new temple, designed by architect John Bolles and being built by Henry Doelger Builders, Inc., will be ready for services next May, according to Hillard Goldstein, president, Congregation Judea.

The unique idea of Brotherhood way, an avenue dedicated solely to houses of worship of all faiths, was presented several years ago to the San Francisco city planning commission.

Under the leadership of Mayor George Christopher, this plan became a reality. Immediately, groups representing the Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish faiths united in this new venture in American religious living.

Since then, the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox community has started building its new church, and the Church of Christ (formerly on Seventeenth street in San Francisco) held dedication of its new house of worship on Brotherhood way several months ago.

In the spirit of Brotherhood way, the Church of Christ has made its sanctuary available to Temple Judea, their future neighbors, for the Jewish High Holy Day services this September.

Gospel Music To Be Heard

The use and meaning of gospel music will be emphasized during services at Broadmoor Presbyterian church Sunday.

Delmar Severy, director of music, will lead members of the adult choir in the Fanny Crosby gospel hymn, "Blessed Assurance."

Mrs. Daisy Tripodes will offer a violin solo. Ken Gillespie and Mrs. Leah House will talk briefly at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at their attendance at the annual Tahoe Family conference at Zephyr Point, Nev.

For the third year in a row, the entire teaching staff of the California-wide conference came from the Broadmoor congregation. The staff, in addition to Gillespie and Mrs. House, included Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. Bernice Hamilton, Mrs. Shirley Pappas, Linda Bolen, Mrs. Elizabeth Hopkins.

In other church news, Rod Barnes, chairman of the Margaret Pauline Brown Memorial Organ fund, reported that almost $7500 has been received or pledged toward a $10,000 goal set by the committee for the purchase of a new organ.

Lutherans Hold First Bible School

The first vacation Bible school to be held in the Pacific Heights area got underway Monday, with over 100 children registered, according to Rev. George S. Johnson, pastor, of Bethlehem Lutheran church.

The church is sponsoring the school, being held at the Pacific Heights school.

Children, ages 5 through 12, from Pacific Heights, Monte Verde, Westborough, Westview, Fairmont, Sharp Park, and Pacific Manor, are attending classes during the hours of 9:45 to 11:45 a.m.

The 25 parents and youth who are volunteering their services to make this VBS possible include: Mesdames Duane Aasland, Richard Badock, Robert Brumbaugh, William Buchalter, Robert Carnahan, Robert Egeland, Tom Ferguson, Boyd Hamilton, Alan Johnson, George Johnson, Maurice Lapp, William Lund, Ray Morkve, Walter Nelson, Robert Palmrose, Clayton Oldaker, Armer Souther, Fred Stearns, Allen Steen, Jack Vogee, Sandy Andreatta, Susan Bruce, Linda Lmaghehn, Anna Martin, and Donna Doan.

Pacifica Bethel Plans Discussion

The second in a series of three layman seminars will be held at Bethel church of Pacifica tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The subject to be discussed by a panel will be, "Talents." The panel consists of David Bacon, as moderator, and John Canales and Mrs. Ruth Ullner as panel members.

Each panel member will give a 10 minute presentation. Then the moderator will ask for questions and discussion from the audience. Anyone interested in this subject is cordially invited to attend the seminar. The Bethel church of Pacifica is at Higgins way and Adobe drive in Linda Mar.

Teenager Asks ...

By JOE BAVARESCO

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

I am 14 years old and I started dating a girl who is 13. Her parents keep telling her not to let me or any boy kiss her. After a date if I try to kiss her good night she gets scared and says no.

I don't think there is anything wrong with a kiss good night. What is wrong with parents and what can I do how do you feel about kissing?

Mr. Unkissable:

There can be any number of reasons why her parents feel that way about kissing. I'll grant you it is wrong, really really wrong. Maybe the parents think of kissing like they kissed when they were 13 or 14 years old and maybe they were kind of wild.

You see, generally parents who are strict were wild when they were young and they know the bad results and don't want their sons and daughters to go through the same.

How do I feel about kissing? Like everything else, it should be done in moderation, but it should be done. Don't be shocked. Yes, it should be done.

Because if a person waits until 16 or 17 because of a law her parents invent, the frustration that is caused can have bad results. When it is finally allowed the girl may, and more than likely will, get carried away and find herself mixed up emotionally and may get into trouble. Again, if you deprive something it only becomes much more desirable.

There is nothing wrong with a good night kiss. It's as American as apple pie. There are many booklets on dating and kissing in the public library. For the girl it is polite to give a boy a kiss good night after a date and it is enough more polite for the boy not to overdo it. Again in moderation.

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

I am 14 years old and my parents say I'm too young to smoke. When is the right age to start smoking? I feel 14 is old enough.

Jim K.

Dear Jim K.: You should start smoking at 110 years of age. That is old enough. It's a disgusting and childish habit.

You want to smoke because you think it makes you older. You're right, it does. It brings you closer to death.

Some day if you get a chance to see an autopsy and see the lung of a person who smoked you'll forget the idea of smoking pretty fast.

Ask anyone over 30 years of age about smoking and listen to them cough in the morning. smell their clothes, house and look at their stained hands, lips, and teeth. Ask yourself if it's worth it.

Ask yourself if it's worth $109.50 a year, because that is the cost of a pack a day, which they tell me is less than average, most people usually smoke more than a pack a day.

This does not count the cost of your dental bill, cough drops and medication, nervousness, wear and tear on your clothes, etc. etc.

Blow smoke through a white handkerchief some day and see what it does to the handkerchief. Then multiply that 20 times a day and you have a little sample of what it does to your throat, lungs, and intestines.

By DON MILLER

IT SEEMS we have an inventive gentleman in town who disdained the idea of building a better mousetrap and instead decided to build a better fish bowl — or, more precisely, an aquarium.

What's more, because he harkened to fish rather than mice, he holds today United States Patent Number 3,095,853 for doing what he started out to do — build a better fish bowl. And a more tickled inventor you won't find in the West these days.

The gentleman with a way with aquariums is William H. Stout of 384 St. Francis boulevard, Daly City. He's a teacher at McClymonds High school in Oakland.

That's his vocation. His avocations — and they seem interminable, his wife says — include painting, sailing (he was the national one meter champ in 1955), hi fi, woodworking and what you might call a general aptitude for fixing most anything.

But it's those fish bowls that have totally captured his spare time these days and threaten, verily, to even muscle in on his teaching.

For Stout has designed a complete aquarium package that not only is unique but is fast becoming a torrid demand item among restaurants, bowling alleys and the just plain Joe Citizens who find a bevy of multi-colored fish swimming over the mantel an endless fascination.

Before we tell you just what it is that makes a Stout aquarium a most unusual abode for fish, let's go back five years or so when this innovator didn't give a hoot for aquariums or their inhabitants.

"I was advised then by my doctor to give up smoking," he recalls. "And I remembered the best way to give up something dear to your heart was to get interested in something else."

That's when he spotted an aquarium someplace and decided to buy a five-gallon tank and enter the business of raising parlor fish himself. In time, that inaugural tank corroded and fell apart. A bulb to light the interior fell into the water and if fish could talk they must have been mumbling something about a nautical Armageddon being at hand.

"So I bought a bigger tank and that, too, in time fell apart," Stout went on.

It was at about this time of collapsing glass and little table top waterfalls that Stout's idea factory jumped into high gear.

"Why," he thought to himself, "don't I build my own aquarium?"

AT FIRST, he considered stainless steel for the frame. "That was too expensive." End of stainless steel idea.

Then he considered angle iron. "But I wasn't a welder and, besides, I couldn't quite imagine angle iron in the living room." Exit angle iron idea.

By this time, the idea factory was humming and Stout considered using wood.

"The problem here was to find something that would preserve the wood under water," he explains.

An extensive canvass of all major paint suppliers for a solution to the problem turned up the same answer from all — epoxy paint. Moreover, this special paint came in bright colors and in clear form.

Stout, however, believes that stained wood — not colored wood — is the only way a wooden tank looks aesthetically pleasing.

The flaw in this thinking, alas, was that no one at that time had yet developed an epoxy stain. No one, that is, until Staub entered stage center and made a sharp right turn toward inventor's row.

"I called one of the big paint manufacturers and told them my problem. An executive told me it would cost a minimum of $5000 to develop an epoxy stain. He added that the company would send a specialist out.

"I asked him what the specialist was going to do and he told me: 'Mr. Stout, he's going to come over to your house and play.'"

Stout explained that this was a way of saying that the specialist would come over to Stout's home, where he had set up a laboratory of sorts, and tinker and fiddle and putter and experiment until an epoxy stain was a reality.

"Well, I just told the man I don't hold a doctorate (the specialist did) but that I'll just start playing at home myself."

And for the next two years, he did just that. In the end, he came up with the first epoxy stain ever produced. And it worked. Today, Stout has a patent pending on this product.

AFTER EASING past the stain barrier, the inventor tackled the next obstacle — finding a way to hold the aquarium glass permanently in place without movement or leakage — a chronic fault, he says, of most aquariums.

The usual way was to apply a hot compound (holding material) around the edges of the glass that would cool and harden. But the heat would burn wood and, therefore, the method couldn't be used.

The idea factory resumed production again and this time the end product was what Stout calls a glass land, a ridge or sorts in the wood frame that permits the use of a soft compound that doesn't have to be heated.

Having vanquished two problems, Stout quickly went to work on the last remaining bug to be worked out — development of a light fixture that wouldn't corrode and the development of a better pump and filter system than those generally found on the market.

The end result is what he calls an aqua-wood aquarium. It's a tank with glass that won't budget after long use. It's corrosion free. It features a hood of sorts on top that prevents oxidation but provides surface air currents beneficial to the fish.

THESE FEATURES are all unique in aquarium construction these days and they're the reason Uncle Sam decided after his usual careful investigation into patent applications that Stout had earned Patent Number 3,095,853. He received it last week.

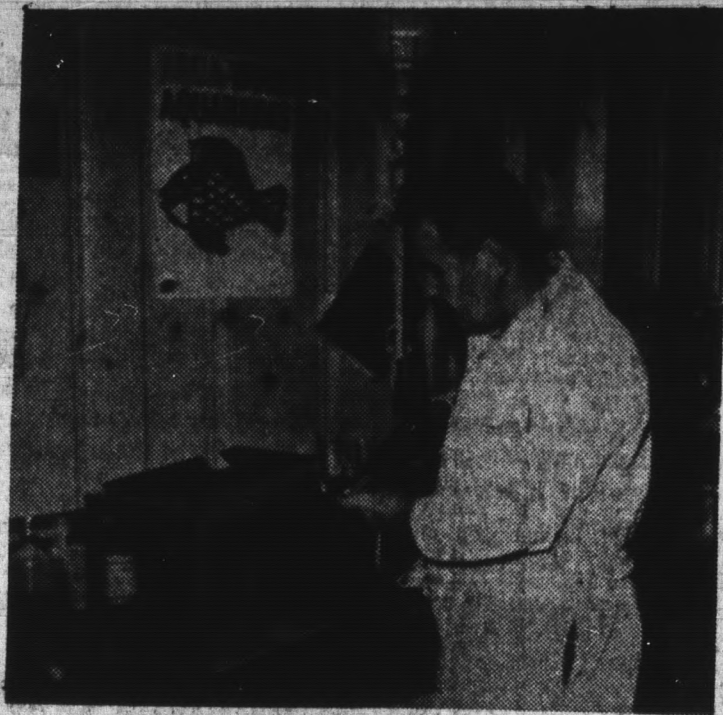

Having become a patent holder, Stout has also become the target of the usual patent promotion letters.

"As soon as you get a patent," he observes "a whole crowd of people want you to let them take your patent over for you and make a fortune for you."

"Why, I even got a letter from one outfit that said they could make me a fortune for $32."

Stout says he'll probably urge his would-be fortune-makers to go take a jump in an aquarium.

Provided, he adds, it's an aqua-wood aquarium.

CRAFTSMAN—Frank M. Stout works on a five-gallon version of his aqua-wood aquarium for which has received a patent from the government. The aquarium, an epoxy stain and a new pump and filter system were developed over a five-year period. (Post-Times photo)

Boys Saved From Coast Rocks, Cliffs

Two separate rescues of boys stranded on the coastline were made in the North county Thursday.

Three boys were taken off Mussel rock near Daly City by a Coast Guard helicopter, and a lone boy was pulled from a cliff in Pacifica by the fire department there.

The Coast Guard helicopter came to the rescue of three Broadmoor teen-agers who forgot to pay attention to the tide while playing on Mussel rock in the Pacific ocean off the old coast highway in Daly City.

They had been trapped on the rock by the rising water.

The boys are Timothy Gerner, 16, 1019 Gilman drive; Daniel Norton, 14, 627 MacArthur drive and Vincent Gurtler, 16, 607 MacArthur drive.

Daly City Patrolman Arthur Glass said the youngsters told him they had left their homes about 1:30 p.m.

After exploring a cave, they climbed onto the rocks at low tide. They were wearing Bermuda shorts and T-shirts. When they decided to return to shore they saw the tide had swept in surrounding the rock.

The boys told Glass they had yelled and attracted attention of several persons at the top of a cliff overlooking the rock. One of the persons called police.

A Daly City rescue squad responded, but was unable to reach the rock. The squad then called the Coast Guard.

The boys were lifted off the rock one-by-one in a basket lowered by ropes from the helicopter. Rescue came shortly after 5 p.m.

Six-year-old Frank Starr was roomed himself on the rocky Pacifica coastline and needed the help of firemen to rescue him.

Frank climbed down the cliffs of the south end of Pacifica between the old railroad right-of-way and the ocean's edge. He couldn't get back up.

Firemen were called and they lowered a rope to the boy. He was towed up and deposited unharmed with his parents at 752 Lundy way.

Pacifica Girl Hurt by Car

A 5-year-old Pacifica girl was struck by an automobile and slightly injured shortly after 8 o'clock Thursday.

Patricia Mallett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mallett, 1199 Manzanita street, dashed into the street from between parked cars and was hit by an automobile driven by a San Francisco man, police said.

She was treated at Milagra medical center and released.

The driver, Charles R. De Battista, 35, 1650 Quesada, San Francisco said he did not see the child until it was too late, the police reported.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Alicante and Manzanita streets.

No charges were filed against De Battista, police said.

Summer High School Signups Hit Record

A record number of students registered for the classes earlier in the year. The pre-registration figure was 100 more than last year's figure.

A slight decrease is expected because of the ruling that if a student withdraws from a class after ten class meetings, he receives an F grade.

Several students withdrew for various reasons such as vacation work or because the class was not what they expected, Martin explained.

The summer classes are two hours long with two classes a day scheduled.

The program ends August 2.

Man Admits S.F. Slaying

The romance of 14-year-old Carol Ann Maligne and 21-year-old Connie Eames ended Friday with the girl dead in a pool of blood and the man jailed in San Francisco on suspicion of murder.

Eames, 1008 Hanover street, Daly City, admitted slashing Carol's throat with a pocket knife at 763 Clayton street, San Francisco, where the girl had been baby-sitting with two small children.

Carol, 74 Lobos street, San Francisco, had been going with Eames for 14 months, her mother told San Francisco police.

Eames had been a good friend of one of Carol's older brothers while they were at James Lick Junior High school and had been a friend of the family for the past six years.

Exciting Dish With Bacon From Canada

Have you discovered the many thrilling ways you can serve Canadian-style bacon? It cured and smoked flavor is mighty tasty at the breakfast table, but you can create great luncheons and dinners with it, too.

Canadian-style bacon comes in a boneless roll; you just slice off individual servings and pan-fry, broil or bake.

Here is a scrumptious casserole idea you simply must try, says a meat recipe expert. The bacon slices bake on top of a mouth-watering mixture of mashed sweet potatoes, camped seedless grapes, chopped pecans, brown sugar and butter or margarine.

Canadian-Style Bacon—Sweet Potatoes Fantasy
8 slices Canadian-style bacon, cut 1/2 inch thick
2 cans (1 pound 7 ounces each) sweet potatoes, drained
1 cup milk
1 can (8 1/2 ounces) seedless grapes, drained
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1/2 cup chopped pecans

Mash sweet potatoes. Add milk and blend thoroughly. Stir in grapes, brown sugar, salt, butter or margarine and pecans. Spoon into a 1 1/2-quart casserole. Arrange Canadian-style bacon slices on top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 minutes. 4 to 6 servings.

Conquistador Spaghetti

There's no denying the conquering good flavor of "Conquistador Spaghetti." Ground beef, pitted ripe olives, tomato sauce, sprightly seasonings and a cheese topping give this spaghetti main dish notable flair. Dark and handsome ripe olives help to turn many everyday entrees into elegant eating.

Conquistador Spaghetti
1 package (8 oz.) spaghetti
1 lb. ground lean beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 tablespoon salad oil
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder
3 cans (8 oz. each) tomato sauce
1 cup pitted ripe olives
Grated sharp American cheese
Cook spaghetti as package directs. Cook beef and onion in oil about 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Stir in garlic powder, salt, chili powder, spaghetti, tomato sauce and olives; cook about 5 minutes. Sprinkle generously with cheese. Bake in 400-degree (hot) oven 5 to 10 minutes until cheese is melted.
Makes 6 servings.

An Avocado Sherbet Tip

Love exotic sherbets? Here's a lovely entree.
Split-Roasted Boned Leg of Lamb
Brown Rice
Cranberry Jelly
Summer Squash
Green Peas
Hazel Meyer's Avocado Sherbet
HAZEL MEYER'S AVOCADO SHERBET

1 1/2 cups mashed avocado
1 cup lemon juice
1 cup orange juice
2 cups sugar
1 pint heavy cream, whipped
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind

Combine the fruit juices, avocado, sugar and lemon rind, blending until sugar is completely dissolved. Pour this mixture into ice-cube trays and freeze for about 1/2 hour. Remove from the freezer, turn it out into a bowl and stir it well. Fold in the whipped cream. Pack in rigid waxed tub or plastic containers and store in freezer. Twelve servings. Recipe from "The Complete Book of Home Freezing," (Lippincott).

Food Editor's Note: Because this is a tangy flavorful sherbet, we like to serve it along with vanilla ice cream.

Party Punch To Pep Up A Saturday

Here's a punch to gladden Saturday evening party.
Lobster or Chicken Salad
Deviled Ham Sandwiches
Party Punch. Assorted Cookies

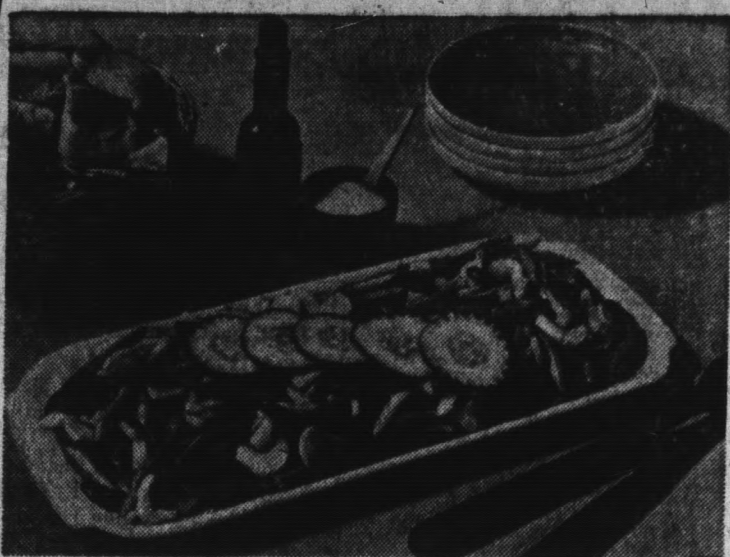

PARTY PUNCH
1 cup sugar
1 can (6 ounces) frozen lemonade concentrate
1 bottle (4-5 quart) sauterne, chilled
2 cans (12 ounces each) apricot nectar, chilled
1 bottle (28 ounces) club soda, chilled

Stir together the sugar, undiluted frozen lemonade concentrate and sauterne until lemonade thaws and sugar dissolves. Add apricot nectar and club soda; mix well. Serve over ice cubes. Makes a little over 3 quarts.

More Meats to Broil
Of the meats that can be broiled, remember to add sweetbreads and brains, two variety meats, to the list. Before being placed in the broiler these meats must be precooked about 20 minutes in water to which a little lemon juice or vinegar has been added. For added flavor brush the sweetbreads or brains with butter or margarine while broiling.

Hearty Potato Salad

To make a summertime potato salad heartier and more nutritious, add diced bologna, luncheon meat or some other ready-to-serve meat.

A Crisp Tabasco Salad's Healthful

This Tabasco health salad captures all the goodness of fresh vegetables—in fact, it's almost a sampling of a summer garden! Small green beans, celery, cucumber, green pepper and young, sweet carrots combine with sliced ripe olives and minced scallion for a salad that spells crisp-textured, flavorful eating.

A simple marinade made with salad oil, wine vinegar, sugar and the spicy zest of Tabasco, the liquid red pepper seasoning, is poured over the prepared vegetables which are then chilled for 3 hours. Before serving, the vegetables, are drained, arranged on a serving plate, and garnished with cucumber slices.

Tabasco Health Salad

2 cups fresh small green beans, cut diagonally
1 cup thinly sliced celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup carrot rounds
1/2 cup sliced ripe olives
2 tablespoons minced scallion
1-3 cup sugar

2-3 cup wine vinegar
1/4 teaspoon Tabasco
1-3 cup salad oil
1 cucumber, sliced
Combine and toss vegetables. Stir sugar into vinegar; add Tabasco and oil. Pour marinade over vegetables; toss. Chill about 3 hours. Drain. Place on serving plate and garnish with cucumber slices.

YIELD: 6 to 8 servings.

Steaks for Grilling

Steaks for cooking on the outdoor grill must be tender enough to broil if you were preparing them indoors. This rules out the steaks that require braising: round steak, flank steak, skirt steak, chuck steak (arm blade).

Party Entree

Cream puffs are commonly thought of as a fancy dessert. But here is a way cream puffs fit into the main course. Prepare a medium white sauce, add diced cooked ham, sliced almonds and green pepper strips. Serve in cream puff shells.

Cantaloupe Is An Eye Catcher

Whether served as salad or dessert, "Snow-Capped Cantaloupe" is a warm-weather delight. Seedless grapes are heaped into California cantaloupe half-shells and peaked with fruit-flavored sour cream for this refreshing eye-catcher.

September marks the end of the season for California mid-summer cantaloupes, so now is the time to treat yourself to an incomparable summer fruit. You will recognize them by their beige-colored rinds with high, well defined netting all over the exterior. Stem ends are clean because the fruit is picked only when it leaves the vines at a touch. Seed cavities are small and the thick meat is apricot color—tender, fragrant and flavorful.

Some California cantaloupes are stamped Cali-lope to help you identify the min markets. With or without the stamp, these are the monarchs of the melon harvest—rich in Vitamin A, a good source of ascorbic acid (Vitamin C) and elegant eating any time of day, with only 35 to 40 calories in the average half-shell.

SNOW-CAPPED CANTALOUPE

2 California cantaloupes
2 cups seedless grapes
1/4 cup dairy sour cream
2 tablespoons chopped marachino cherries
1/4 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon orange juice
1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Dash salt

Cut cantaloupes into halves; remove seeds. Heap grapes into melon half-shells. Combine remaining ingredients; spoon over grapes. If you wish, garnish with cantaloupe balls and additional grapes. Makes 4 servings.

Piggyback, or truck-trailer-on-flatcar traffic this year is running 14 per cent above that of 1962 and double the 1959 level. Railroad officials estimate more than two million truck-trailer loads will move by rail during 1963.

Try Hominy Cheese Souffle

READER'S QUERY: "I've followed your advice and served Noodles Romanoff with ham as a change-off from the usual baked beans and scalloped potatoes, but now I've done the noodle dish to death. I'd appreciate another suggestion."

Glad to oblige, and individual Hominy Cheese Souffles are our choice. Here's the recipe, one that should satisfy six hearty eaters.

HOMINY CHEESE SOUFFLES

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups milk
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 cup regular hominy grits
1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
4 eggs (separated)

In a medium saucepan over low heat, melt the butter. Stir in cornstarch and salt, blending as smooth as possible. Gradually stir in milk and water; stirring constantly, bring to a boil. Stir in grits. Cook over low heat, stirring often, for 20 minutes. Remove from heat; cool about 10 minutes; if mixture is cooled too long, egg whites will not fold in readily. Stir in cheese and cream of tartar. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored; stir into grits mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold in. Turn into six ungreased individual baking or souffle dishes — 7 or 8 ounces (about 1 cup) and from 1 1/2 to 2 inches deep. Place in shallow pan; pour hot water into pan to depth of 1 inch. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven 45 to 60 minutes without opening oven door during baking. Rush to table. Makes 6 servings.

Simmer Slow And a Sauce Tantalizes

Plentiful pork and nutritious liver get together in a spicy meat sauce that's wonderfully tantalizing when served with spaghetti or rice.

Lazy simmering of the meats, tomato sauce, spices and herbs is what produces the perfectly blended flavor. So don't rush the cooking.

Ground pork, as is called for in this recipe, may either be purchased at your meat counter or ground yourself. The liver should be browned lightly first, then ground.

Meat Sauce For Spaghetti or Rice

1 pound ground pork
1/2 pound liver, sliced
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1 can (1 pound 12 ounces) tomatoes
1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
1-3 cup water

1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoons oregano
1/4 teaspoon basil
1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder
1/4 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Spaghetti or rice, cooked
Brown liver on both sides in lard or drippings. Put liver through coarse grinder. Cook pork, onion, garlic and green pepper until lightly browned. Pour off drippings. Add ground liver to pork mixture. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, water, salt, oregano, basil, chili powder, sugar and pepper to meat mixture. Cover tightly and simmer 15 minutes. Remove cover and continue cooking 30 minutes or until sauce is thickened. Serve over cooked spaghetti or rice. 6 servings.

Chicken Operation May Much Praise for Become Franchise Sinaloa Revue

KEITH WILLIAMSON, the Burlingame chicken Midas, is doing such a big volume of business that his operation caught the eye of an Eastern equipment manufacturer who suggested that Keith set up a franchise through-out the country called "Keith's House of Fried Chicken." A deal like this couldn't happen to a nicer guy. Good luck from this corner. Mr. Williamson, it seems like only yesterday (instead of 16 months ago) that I watched you "hatch" the first order of chicken in a basket. Smart banquet-minded people are making early holiday reservations at Nick Finocchio's New Tivoli restaurant in San Francisco. The black book fills fast, even if they do have five such rooms from which to choose. Met Lew and Edith Lehr in South San Francisco, the other p.m., and they took all of 15 minutes to tell me how much they had enjoyed their Brentwood Lodge dinner — since it was my happy pleasure to recommend it.

Keith Williamson

ONE THING ABOUT HORKY AND FRANK SCHY, if an employee is ill, this versatile duo can cover all restaurant bases — from bar to kitchen. Since adding sea food to their Palo Alto Horky's restaurant menu, many new faces are putting in dining room appearances. . . . Mary Ann Hay, vocal star at Nick's Rockaway Beach, is also the "check room chic." For your information, this room has been enlarged twofold. "Just had to have more room for the mink coats," was Mary Ann's comment. . . . Among the newcomers in Finocchio's troupe of female impersonators is Robin Price, whose dancing in his impersonation of a French Can-Can gal is winning thunderous applause at every show. Another new dancer, Juan Jose, became a star his first appearance. Impersonating a Spanish senorita, he specializes in being very much the temptress.

MILT TONINI, the Princeton Inn boss, is planning a Christmas in July party, complete with all the festive trimmings — even Tom and Jerry. Milt will act as Santa Claus. In the absence of the usual reindeer, a team of donkeys will bring in the sled. . . . Roy Blackwood, manager of the Blue Peacock restaurant located in the Millbrae Kings Bowl, brings to mind that the popular Continental provides entertainment and dance music Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings. The group also features "a looker" — vocalist and drummer Daryl Johnson, who is causing a "staggeration." Carmel Sands has the Sky Deck "flying high." Everything is spick and span — with the salad bar cause for a double take-eye and palate wise. . . . The Half Moon Bay sector has a new restaurant entrance in the Half Moon Bay Inn, where Joe Fernandez is the chef. Floyd Keane, owner, tends to bar duties. This oceanside eatery features family-style American food, steaks, lobster tail, and other seafood dishes. Dining room not open Tuesdays.

DICK VARTANIAN, well known pianobar entertainer who was one of the first to preem a beard effect, is currently top spotted at Bruno Scatena's Joe's of Westlake. . . . Credit executive chief Tom Delano of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel as being one of the best corn bread bakers. This was never one of my favorites until I enjoyed it in the Greenwillow Room. From now on I'm from the South. . . . Clare Irby, former member of the Mori's Point Inn staff, is back from Palm Springs. Her first stop was a visit with Inn keeper Doug Hart and his crew. She and her pal Gladys Johnson (they're known as the Pacifica "Cherry Sisters") sang a few songs and did a dance routine to the tune of "Side By Side." . . . Horse fans, who would like to be brought up to date on turf information, have no problems when stopping in the New Southern restaurant. Reno, Julie, or Freddy can clue you in a flash — whether it's harness or thoroughbred. . . . Schlegel's owner, Bill Mallory, is a "loner" in the kitchen — has been for the eight years he is in the restaurant business. Food here, from soup to dessert, an appetite bull's-eye.

PETER LIND HAYES AND MARY HEALY continue to add new laurels to their careers as favorites in TV and in smart supper clubs from coast to coast when they open on July 18 for three weeks in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel. Peter and Mary, popular stars in television, made their video debut in 1949 on the Chevrolet show and followed this by launching the CBS Stork Club show. As night club entertainers they have been breaking records everywhere. When in Los Angeles recently, they broke the record in attendance for 18 years at the Ambassador Hotel. . . . Supervisor Leo Halley and Joe Tinney lunching at Rocca's restaurant were working away with pencil on the tablecloth. At length, Joe proceeded to read what he had written on the cloth. Whereupon, Halley cracked, "I move we table that." . . . Frank Torres' Montara Beach restaurant has long been known for serving delicious Peruvian food. However, such dishes as roast Maryland duckling with wild rice and apple sauce taste as good as they sound.

Neel Coward was a ringsider at the Sinaloa, Monday p.m., and his after-the-show comments were very pleasing to cantina owner Juan Garcia.

Coward was high on his praise for the vocaling of Juan Guerrero, whose romantic Latin-American songs were one of the feature attractions in Xavier Cugat's orchestra during a recent tour.

The Sinaloa star-studded bill also includes the Flamenco routines of Solar and Lorea; Latin dances of Nylda, the "El Salvador Darling"; Polo and Marie, interpretative Fire Dancers; and the clever emcee patter of Armando Duval.

Mexican and American diners served from 6 p.m., no cover charge for diners at any time. Sinaloa is not open on Sundays.

Don't feel sorry for yourself if you can't get away for an out-of-town vacation. Just set your sights on the Burlingame Hyatt House Hotel and you'll find every resort convenience — from swimming, sun basking to superb cuisine and excellent entertainment.

Hong Kong style delicacies are a specialty at Kan's at the Hyatt House. There are over 50 authentic dinners of this type listed on the attractive menu. Cocktails to suit any occasion.

Much more dining room space at Pierre's since the recent removing of booths. This assures faster and better service for those who have a short time in which to dine.

Bob Bellows
Big Hit at Caravan Inn

Bob Bellows is proving just what the public ordered at the Mountain View Caravan Inn. His Monday evening debut was to a packed house — which hasn't changed since. An international recording star, many of Bob's records (his latest album being "Misty") are big sellers in Europe as well as in the States. Bellows' booking at the Caravan Inn is for a limited time, so schedule a dinner date here, plus cocktails and a look-listen to Bob Bellows' piano entertaining.

The Le Trianon, situated on Blue Lakes in Lake County, is known as the family resort. Here, you will find cabins, camping, trailer space, and all the conveniences that spell vacation.

The International Inn cocktail set has passed approval on the new lounge and bar set up here. "Meet you at the International Inn" is a 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. password.

Lew Lehr, the Marina steak man, and his bar manager, Stan Marcus, have quite a golf rivalry going. Stan isn't the type to let the boss win for political reasons. When he can, he beats Lew.

Howard Hot Springs Natural Mineral Water

Howard Hot Springs offers the world's largest combination of natural mineral and drinking water. This Lake County site is ideal for relief of arthritis and rheumatism. There is a masseuse and masseur on hand for the summer season. Enjoy your vacation on the American plan.

Big mystery at Romano's Pacifica Italian restaurant: Seems someone took a picture of the "pizza-king" (it's about the size of a small billboard) from the dining room wall. Saturday night, and made off with it. Next morning it was found on the beach and returned to its important position in the club. The only evidence of change: Lipstick impressions on the glass. Someone is lonesome, maybe?

Vacation Time Brings New Faces

It's the time of year when Uncle John's Pancake House fame spreads like melted butter on top of hot cakes. One reason being that folks from out of town who have become regular Uncle John's customers on every Peninsula visit go back home with food raves. The way Uncle John's franchises are springing up, there will soon be one in every major city.

There has been a big increase in diners at George Mardikian's Omar Khayyam's restaurant since the opening of Camelot. This is a favorite before-curtain dinner house.

Summer Coolers Happy Surprise

Happy surprise! Both the frosty summer drinks and the cool fruit-filled salad are penny-wise and calorie-wise besides being deliciously cooling. What makes them that way? A no-calorie sweetener which flattens the other flavors, and is a boon to weight-watching. Current market prices make this the economy sweetener as well. All of which means that it's possible to luxuriate in wonderful eating and feel smugly virtuous at the same time. Here's how it's done:

Fruit Medley Salad: Sprinkle 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin over 1/2 cup water in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat. Add 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup unsweetened orange juice, 1 1/4 teaspoons liquid Sweet*10 and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Chill until thickened, but not set. Stir in 2 cups cut fresh fruit (oranges, strawberries, bananas, grapes, pears, peaches or melon balls). Turn into 3-cup mold or individual molds. Chill until firm. Makes six 1/2-cup servings.

Lemon-Lime Sparkle: Freeze 1 pint bottle (2 cups) sugar-free lemon-lime carbonated beverage in ice cube tray. Combine 1 quart cold water, 1 pint chilled sugar free lemon-lime carbonated beverage, 1 tablespoon liquid Sweet*10 and 1 package lemon-lime flavored beverage powder. Serve with frozen carbonated beverage ice cubes.

Note: Other flavors of beverage powder may be substituted.

Try Creamy Avocado Dip

No one ever has too many recipes for party dips, so make way for delicious "Creamy Avocado Dip." Cream cheese, California Avocados and green onion tops are the chief ingredients in this fast-to-fix palate-pleaser. In addition to being a "natural" for dips, California avocados are ideal in summery sandwich fillings and soups. They also dress up scrambled eggs for special occasions; simply fold in small cubes or balls of avocado just before the eggs "set."

Creamy Avocado Dip
2 California avocados
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese
1/2 teaspoon salt

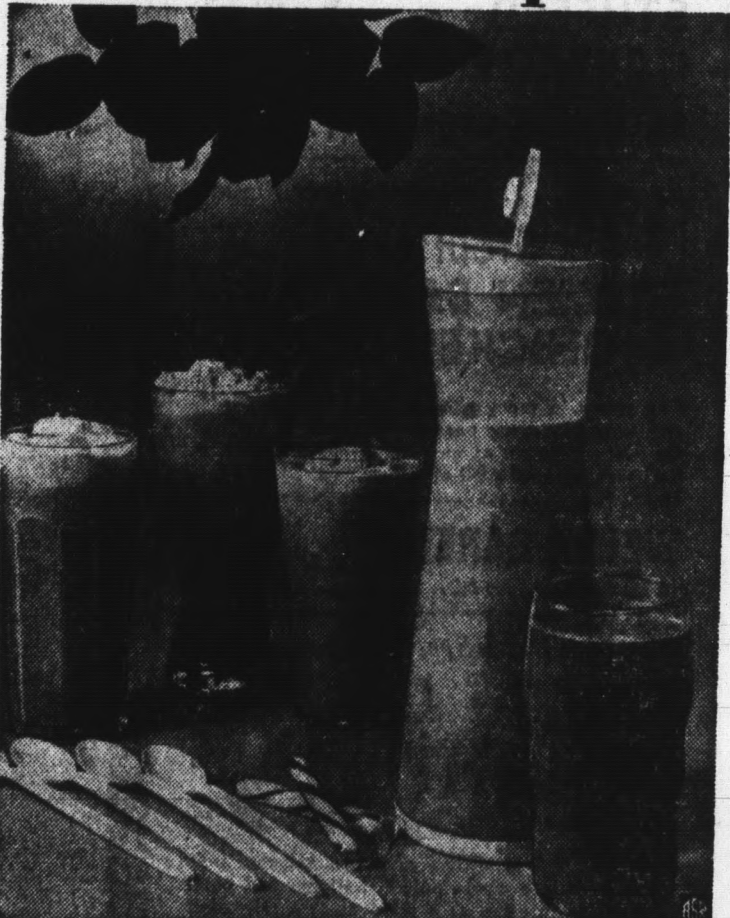

1/2 teaspoon Tabasco
1 tablespoon finely chopped green onion tops
Dip chips

Cut avocados lengthwise into halves; remove seeds and skin. Force fruit through sieve or whiz in blender with lemon juice. Soften cheese; stir into avocado mixture along with salt, Tabasco and onion. Serve with dip chips. Makes 2 cups.

SAUSAGE SOUP

Ever add sliced browned and cooked link sausage to pea soup instead of the usual frankfurter rounds? Nice for a change!

Homemade Milk Shakes Are Special

As summer sets in, kitchen traffic increases. The children not only want more to quench their thirst but they want it more frequently. One suggestion that makes sense is to keep a shaker of chocolate-flavored milk ready and waiting in the refrigerator. By making it ahead, you can add just the right amount of fortified syrup without being extravagant or wasteful.

As a surprise delight, vary the shake occasionally with additional ingredients. In addition to the 1 quart of milk, and the 1/4 cup fortified chocolate flavored syrup, add an additional ingredient such as 1/4 cup malted milk powder, or a few drops of peppermint extract, or 2 or 3 tablespoons instant coffee.

For special occasions and parties, prepare the shakes ahead as usual, then let the guests add their own final touches of whipped cream, a scoop of ice cream and toppings such as crushed peppermint candy, chocolate sprinkles and the like.

The shaker shown above is a 1-quart plastic shaker currently being offered for 50c and a label from a jar of Bosco. Send money and label to Bosco Shaker, Box 8070, Erie, Pa.

This Thirst-Aid Is Calorie Shy

If you're counting calories, as so many people are these days, be on guard against hidden calories in hot weather thirst-quenchers. Ordinary sweetening in many summer beverages can send the calorie count soaring.

It's easy to whittle unnecessary calories from your favorite drinks by replacing the sugar normally required with the calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl. In this delightfully refreshing Three Fruit Punch (pineapple, orange and lemon), calories have been pared down from 110 to just 45 calories for each 8-ounce serving. Note, too, that there are no clouds in your sparkling punch when you make the tea this cold water way.

Three Fruit Punch (Low-Calorie)

½ cup tea leaves	½ cup lemon juice
3 cups cold water	2 tablespoons Sucaryl solution
2½ cups unsweetened pineapple juice	1 quart Sucaryl-sweetened non-caloric gingerale
2 cups orange juice

Combine tea leaves and cold water; refrigerate overnight; strain. Add juices and Sucaryl. Just before serving, add gingerale. Pour over ice in tall glasses. Garnish, if desired, with orange slices, maraschino cherries and mint.

Makes 3 quarts or 12 servings. Each serving contains 45 CALORIES; 0.5 gram protein; trace of fat; 12 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 110 CALORIES.

Try Chilean Pot Roast

Beef pot-roast, that family meal standby, probably fits into your menus fairly frequently. How nice to find it even more economical—priced than usual!

Here's another bonus... a new idea for cooking a pot-roast offered by an authority on meat cookery. It adapts a spicy style of cookery from South America and includes tomatoes, kidney beans and chili powder. The amount of chili powder is not too much... just enough to pep up the meal.

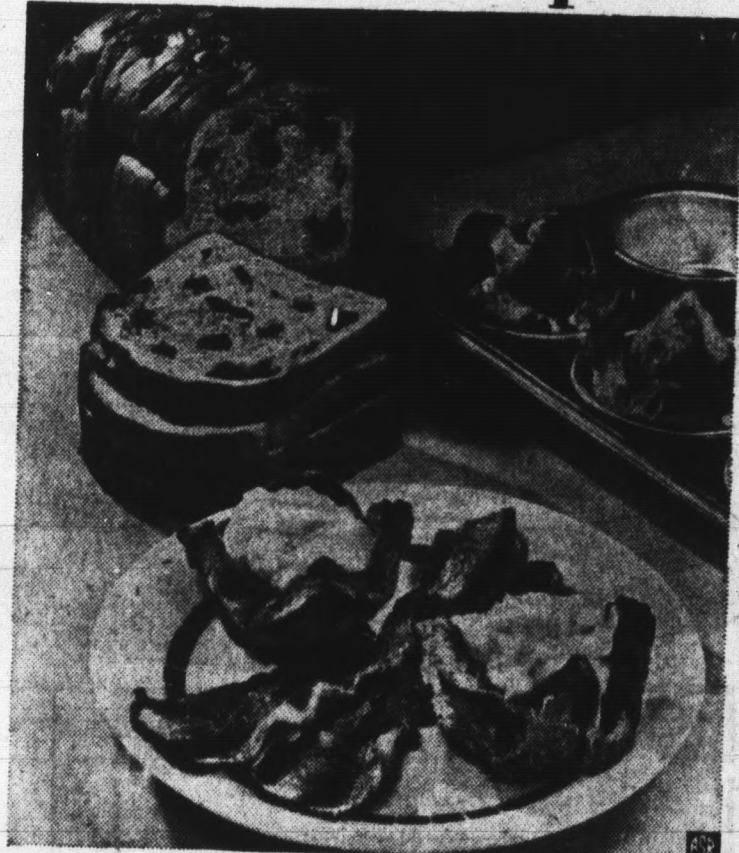

CHILEAN POT-ROAST

3 to 4-pound beef arm or blade pot-roast
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 teaspoons salt

¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon chili powder
1 can (16 ounces) tomatoes
1 can (16 ounces) kidney beans, drained
Flour for gravy

Brown pot-roast in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season with salt, pepper and chili powder. Drain tomatoes, reserving liquid. Add tomato liquid to pot-roast. Cover tightly and cook slowly 3 to 3½ hours or until almost tender. Add additional liquid if necessary. Add tomatoes and kidney beans and cook an additional 15 minutes. Remove meat and vegetables to heated platter. Thicken cooking liquid with flour for gravy. 6 to 8 servings.

A Raisinbread Is Taste Surprise

Slices of taste surprising raisinbread are spread with a mustard flavored butter and baked in muffin cups to make these Raisin Buttercups. When tasty, pile them high with creamy scrambled eggs and bacon. They're fun to eat!

During National Sandwich Month make your favorite sandwich with raisinbread. Deviled ham or cream cheese and nuts are especially good fillings. Oftentimes many varieties of Raisinbread are available including cinnamon, orange and nut.

Raisin Buttercups

½ cup butter or margarine, melted	3 strips bacon
1½ tablespoons prepared mustard	6 eggs
6 slices raisinbread	½ cup milk
	½ teaspoon seasoned salt
	Dash pepper

Blend butter and mustard together; brush over inside of 6 large muffin cups. Fit raisinbread slices gently into muffin cups; brush inside each one with remaining mustard-butter. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) until crisp and golden brown, about 15 minutes. Fry bacon until crisp. Remove bacon and oil but one tablespoon drippings from skillet. Beat eggs lightly with milk, salt and pepper. Add egg mixture to hot drippings and cook over medium-low heat, stirring now and then, until eggs are set but still soft. Sprinkle crumbled bacon over eggs just before they are done. Spoon scrambled eggs into hot raisin toast cups. Makes 6 servings.

Cottage Pudding Good With Lime Sauce, Cherries

Hardly a week passed in many an old-fashioned household without cottage pudding appearing on the dinner table at least once.

Cottage pudding was (and still is) nothing but a thrifty version of a thrifty one-egg cake, but dressed up in various ways. The dessert has always tasted best fresh from the oven, and it still does.

Some of Grandma's homemade preserves used to be made into a sauce for the pudding. The clear garnet of currant jelly, the ruby-red of raspberry jam, the plump sweetness of "put up" cherries or strawberries might lend their charm to this accompaniment.

Particularly favored, too, as partner to the pudding was a clear sweet sauce slightly thickened with cornstarch and made tangy with lemon. But in 1963 you might like to try our way of flavoring the sauce with lime, then for a garnish the whole is bound to applaud, adding the fresh red cherry.

How do you pit cherries perfectly? We've tried using old-fashioned stubby pin nibs—yes, you can still buy them. We've tried hairpins—yes, they're still with us. But the tool we like best is the up-to-date swivel-blade vegetable peeler; we hold that its pointed end does the best job removing pits with little meat attached, leaving the lovely fruit whole.

COTTAGE PUDDING WITH CLEAR LIME SAUCE AND FRESH CHERRIES

1½ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 large egg
½ cup milk
Clear Lime Sauce
1 pound sweet cherries, pitted
Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Thoroughly beat in the egg. Lightly stir in sifted dry ingredients in several additions, alternately with the milk; do not beat batter or pudding will have tunnels. Turn into a greased 8-inch round layer-cake pan. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 25 minutes or until tester inserted in center comes out clean. Serve hot with Clear Lime Sauce and pitted cherries.

CLEAR LIME SAUCE

1 tablespoon cornstarch
2-3 cup sugar
Pinch of salt
1 cup water
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ teaspoon grated lime rind
2 tablespoons lime juice
In a small saucepan, stir together thoroughly the cornstarch, sugar and salt. Gradually stir in water, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until clear and slightly thickened. Remove from heat; stir in butter, lime rind and lime juice. Serve hot or warm.

NUT PASTRIES
¼ cup and 1 tablespoon soft butter
¼ cup cultured sour cream
2 cups sifted flour
2 tablespoons light brown sugar
2 tablespoons honey
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup finely chopped walnuts
½ cup chopped raisins
Cream together the ¼ cup butter, sour cream and flour; wrap tightly in clear plastic wrap or waxed paper. Chill overnight. Mix together the 1 tablespoon butter, sugar, honey, lemon rind, cinnamon, walnuts and raisins. On a prepared pastry cloth roll out chilled dough into a 12-inch circle; cut into 16 pie-shaped wedges. Spread some of the raisin-nut mixture on each but not to edges. Roll up each wedge beginning with the wide end; press down point.

Beer Is Flavor For Meat Loaf

There are probably almost as many ways to make a meat loaf as there are days in the year! If you're looking for a new one, and an easy to prepare family supper at the same time, try this skillet meat loaf tanged with the zesty flavor of beer. Either of the brewed beverages is used as the liquid ingredient, and makes gravy right in the pan, along with a touch of chili sauce. Cooking the patty on top of the stove keeps your kitchen cooler and enables you to serve the dish in half the time required for oven-baked meat loaf. And summer being the season everyone wants to be out of doors, this is indeed a tasty time-saver!

SUMMERTIME MEAT LOAF

1 egg
1 cup beer or ale, divided
1 cup soft bread crumbs
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon instant dried onion

½ teaspoon thyme
1 pound ground chuck
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1-3 cup chili sauce
Beat egg slightly in large bowl. Add 1-3 cup of beer. Stir in bread crumbs, salt, pepper, onion and thyme. Add meat and mix thoroughly. Shape into one large patty. Melt butter in skillet. Brown meat over medium heat on both sides. Add remaining pan gravy and heat to serving temperature. Yield: 4 servings.

Steak Garnish

Garnishes can be so easy to prepare and add color and individuality to a steak platter. Try wrapping a half slice of bacon around a tomato wedge. Secure with a wooden pick. Then place a mushroom cap or a stuffed olive on the tip of the pick. Broil them with the steak during the last 8 to 10 minutes of cooking.

Sirloin Steak

It's a great day for steak fans! You can't beat this for flavor, cooked indoors or out—they're red-meat good

Who Will Fill New Judgeships?

Who will Governor Brown appoint to the four new San Mateo county judgeships that have been approved by the legislature? No one really knows, except, perhaps, the governor. But chances are he hasn't even considered some of the appointments yet, let alone made up his mind about them.

One man's speculation may be no better than another's, because the "experts" and "insiders" are frequently wrong. But there is a lot of it and it all has a way of distilling into a sort of pattern. Here is what has emerged from the distillation of rumors that have been going around:

It is generally accepted that three municipal court judges are actively seeking appointment to the superior court, which has more prestige and pays more money.

They are H. Howard Hartley in San Mateo, Charles Becker in South San Francisco and Frank J. Comaich in Redwood City. Becker's chances of getting one of the two new superior court positions may have been lessened by the recent elevation in San Francisco of Judge William A. O'Brien from the municipal to the superior court.

O'Brien is a Republican, as is Becker, and it is not expected that Governor Brown will do too many favors for the opposition party.

Judges Hartley and Comaich, on the other hand, are Democrats and are known to be in solid with the governor and the party. It is considered that the two appointees to the higher court will probably come from the ranks of municipal court bench because it would give the gov-

IN ELECTION WAKE

Laguna Asks for State Aid Appeal

Laguna Salada school officials, in the wake of a successful campaign to pass a $600,000 local bond issue and $6 million state loan authorization, have appealed to Pacifica taxpayers to press for more state aid to schools.

More than 200 letters signed by Ruth Boudnot, board chairman, and Frederick Lucas, superintendent, have been mailed to citizens who were active in supporting the bond issue—urging them to write Gov. Edmund Brown and state legislators to re-emphasize the financial problems of school districts.

The state lawmakers were called back last week into special session by Governor Brown. He has asked them to reconsider budget proposals and to augment state aid to public schools.

The Laguna Salada letter charged that "inaction by the state has forced increases in local property taxes," since, in spite of inflation and growth in enrollment, state aid has increased by only $21.36 per pupil (12 per cent) while local taxes have increased $101.15 (61.5 per cent) in the past 10 years.

Pacifica taxpayers were particularly encouraged to support a proposal for a county-wide tax and provisions for distributing funds on an equalization basis.

Mrs. Boudnot and Lucas pointed out that Laguna Salada has the lowest operating costs in San Mateo county and described the district as "desperately in need of additional support."

Mrs. Boudnot said letters also have been sent to officials in school districts with fewer than 10,000 pupils and less than $800,000 per child, urging them to sponsor similar letter-writing campaigns in their communities.

municipal court are to be assigned to South San Francisco and Redwood City. If Hartley and Comaich are elevated, that would leave additional spots in San Mateo and Redwood City.

F. Jose deLarios, a South San Francisco attorney and a party faithful, is conceded to have the best chance for the South San Francisco job.

The best bet to succeed Hartley is William W. Penaluna, a San Mateo lawyer and state inheritance tax appraiser. If Hartley should not get the superior court appointment, Penaluna might be the governor's choice for that position.

This leaves only the Redwood City municipal court, where Melvin E. Cohn, San Carlos city attorney, and Lyle E. Edson, a chief deputy district attorney, are among the top candidates.

If Judge Comaich should be elevated, it is considered a likelihood that both Cohn and Edson would win appointments.

Of course, other attorneys will be actively seeking appointments and it is entirely possible that some or all of the men named here will be left out in the cold.

There is almost no end to the list of lawyers who would like to be judges and many of them will be active campaigners with the governor.

But, among those who play the guessing game, the pattern of appointments outlined here is the most popular.

Family Night Program

PLAYGROUND FETE — A family night program was held last week at all Pacifica playgrounds, sponsored by the Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation department. Here, Mrs. Shirley Humphrey of 1147 Galvez drive with her children, David, 16 months, Deborah, 9 and Denise, 6, receive refreshments at Sanchez school from Janis Doherty, 13, who graduated from Sanchez in June. Family bingo and a two-hour variety show highlighted the program. (Post-Times Photo.)

Crespi Work Is Lagging

Pacifica's efforts to improve Linda Mar's two ancient thoroughfares is having mixed results, Pacifica city engineer Al Roberts reported last week. The Adobe drive project is moving ahead while reconstruction of Crespi drive is lagging.

A petition from property owners on Adobe drive to form an assessment district has been submitted to the city, Roberts announced at city council meeting. The council decided to set a date for a public hearing at its next regular meeting.

Roberts said Adobe would be wider than the average city street and gas tax funds would therefore be used for its rebuilding.

Improvement of Crespi drive from the coastal highway to just beyond Laguna Salada's new Cabrillo school is being delayed because of a dispute between two property owners over a right-of-way, Roberts reported.

Repair work on the street in front of the school is also being delayed because of an unexpected drainage problem encountered on the school property.

TOP STOLEN

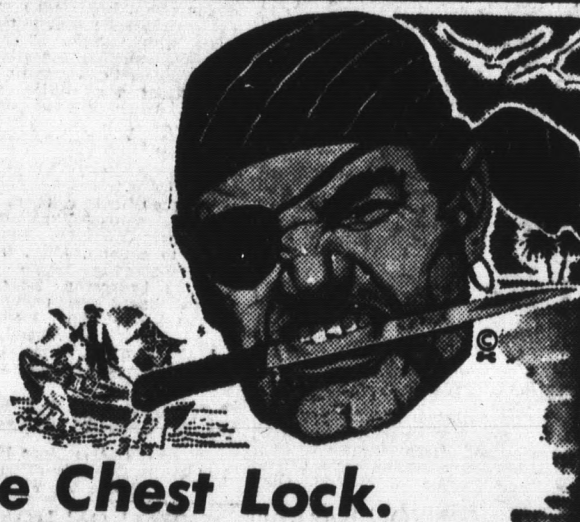

Triumph Motors at 6755 Mission street reported to Daly City police over the weekend that a leather top, valued at $100, had been stolen from a car, parked in a company lot.
